New Congress

WASHINGTON, March 22.—A proclamation convening congress in special session at noon April 11, "to receive such communication as may be made by the executive" was issued today by President Harding.

Tariff and tax revision will be the principal subjects before the new congress, but many other important subjects, including the transportation problem, regulation of the packing and coal industries and immigration restriction are expected to be taken up.

None of the subjects to be considered was mentioned in the call for the session, the text of which follows: "Whereas, public interests require that the congress of the United States should be convened in extra session at 12 o'clock noon, on the eleventh day of April, 1921, to receive such communication as may be made by the executive,

SUDDEN DEATH OF
DR. ARTHUR GERRY

Dr. Arthur C. Gerry, aged 55 years, a retired dentist employed recently at the United States Cartridge Co.'s plant in Lawrence street, dropped dead while at his work this morning. The body was viewed by Medical Examiner T. E. Smith, who pronounced death due to cerebral hemorrhage, and was later removed to the funeral parlors of Undertaker George W. Henley in Branch street.

PRESENTS LOAN ORDERS

Highway Commissioner Murphy
Preparing for Street
Improvement Activities

The first step in this year's program for street improvement in Lowell was taken by Commissioner Dennis A. Murphy at this morning's meeting of the city council when he introduced two loan orders to provide for paving and macadam work during the coming season.

The first order provided for the borrowing of $50,000 for permanent paving and the second $50,000 for macadam work. Both orders were referred to the city clerk to be advertised the customary seven days before action can be taken. It is understood that part of the $50,000 macadam loan will be used for the improvement of First street.

Further preparations for the active season of the department were in evidence when the council instructed Commissioner Murphy to map out his plan of street sprinkling and oiling for the coming season and voted to approve regulations for road oil, sewer castings, sewer pipe and cement.

Routine Matters

The meeting was called at 10:30. Mr. Salmon was absent but came in later.

A hearing was held on the petition of the New England Telephone and Telegraph company for a pole location in Pleasant street. William Morse was opposed.

Mrs. William Burt appeared in favor of the petition of the New England Telephone and Telegraph Co. for a pole location in Marsh street. The matter was referred to Commissioners Murphy and Marchand.

A hearing was held on the petition of the same company for two pole locations in West Sixth street. Mrs. Mary Macaughton appeared in support of the petition. The matter was referred to Messrs. Marchand and Murphy.

The same company petitioned for two pole locations in Cross street. There was no remonstrance and the matter was referred.

Commissioner Salmon reported favorably on the petition of the New England Auto Co. for a gasoline license at 345-35 Broadway and the license was granted.

The petition of Pierre Brunelle, Jr., that a sidewalk be laid on the westerly side of Standish street, was referred to Commissioner Murphy.

Similar action was taken on a petition for an arc light at the junction of Moody and Suffolk streets.

The Lowell Electric Light corporation petitioned for two poles in Bachman street off Lakeview avenue. A hearing was set for April 5.

Katherine M. Shuman entered a claim for bodily injuries and damages to clothing resulting from a fall in High street on March 15. She alleged that the accident was caused by the defective condition of the sidewalks. The damage to her clothing amounted to $35, she reported.

Commissioners Murphy and Marchand reported favorably on the following petitions of the Lowell Electric Light corporation and the accompanying orders were adopted: Two poles in Moore street near Agawam, two poles in Mt. Washington street and the construction and maintenance of a manhole in Middlesex st.

Commissioner Murphy introduced an order to rescind a portion of an order adopted last October providing for gas lights in Oakland path and other thoroughfares and to install instead in Oakland path an incandescent electric lighting.

ACTION ON A PLAN FOR BETTER STREETS

At the meeting of the board of directors of the chamber of commerce next Monday, it is announced as probable that further action will be taken to ward urging action by the municipal council on the plan submitted by the chamber for improving the streets of the city. The report was the outcome of a careful survey made by experienced engineers. When it was presented to the council, Commissioner Dennis A. Murphy asked that the names of the engineers should be made known and it was promised at the time that the information would be furnished later. The chamber's recommendations to the council include the construction of streets by contractors instead of city laborers.

A hearing is being held today in the state house in Boston on the proposition to increase the charges for registration of motor vehicles, the receipts to be used for the improvement of the pleasure highways of the state. The Traffic club of the chamber went on record recently as opposed to the proposition unless the money should be used for the improvement of trunk line highways. It was claimed that, as the proposed rates are to be based on the size and capacity of the vehicles, a large part of the charges would have to be paid by the owners of heavy trucks, and they claim that it would be unfair to use the receipts for improving pleasure roads from which the trucks are barred.

The Packing Plant
It was announced today at the chamber's room that the result of the referendum of vote on the question of the desirability of licensing a packing plant to occupy the premises of the Harvard company would be presented to the members of the municipal council at the hearing on the matter tomorrow night. Secretary Manager Wells will present the result of the vote with a brief explanation of the way in which the referendum was held.

It is stated that the referendum is not to be considered as in any way committing the chamber to a course of action for or against the licensing of the plant. The result will be presented without argument simply as representing the opinion expressed by the ballots of about one-third of the members.

CASES HEARD IN POLICE COURT

Man Arrested for Drunkenness Carried "Jaakey Cocktails" in Bottles

Defendant in Larceny Case, Delayed by Automobile Trouble, Defaulted

The old days when whiskey could be secured for a time in little bottles, containing about one drink and called "nips," or "smiles," were revived this morning in the police court when two small, flat bottles which held "Jaakey cocktails" were exhibited to Judge Enright. John Sidney, who pleaded guilty to drunkenness, had them in his possession when arrested. Sidney was released from jail yesterday morning after having done three months for habits of inebriation. It seemed to him that an appropriate way to celebrate his new freedom would be to partake moderately of "Jaakey." However, his potations apparently extended beyond his original intention, for Officer William Kilroy, who made the arrest together with Officer Sheehan, testified this morning that he found Sidney "down for the count." The defendant, 39 years old, is a laborer, and told Judge Enright that he would like to be freed so that he could go to work in Lincoln, N. H. But his honor was dubious. The police records show that Sidney has been in five times within a year, and has spent half his time during that period in jail, on two different sentences. He "went up" for three months in July, came before the court again during the Christmas holidays, was released, and reappeared the following morning. Again he was made a guest of the county, and getting clear of jail yesterday, immediately fell into the clutches of the law again. He could not remember where he obtained the two "nips" of Jaakey, he said, and Officer Kilroy agreed that he probably couldn't. "He was very drunk," he said, "and he said, 'When you get drunk, you terrorize the neighborhood,'" declared Judge Enright in response to Sidney's pleas for another chance. His honor seemed to feel that the defendant was allowed to go he would merely return with another load. However, it was finally decided to send an officer with Sidney to the depot, where his ticket could be purchased for New Hampshire, and he could be safely put aboard the train. He had $17, enough to get him to his destination. A suspended sentence to the state farm was given, and suspended for one year. "If you come in here again," warned the judge, "you will be sent away."

ON TRIAL FOR ATTEMPT TO KIDNAP BERGDOLL

MOSBACH, Baden, March 22.—Trial of Carl Neuf and Franz Zimmer, Americans, who attempted to arrest Grover Cleveland Bergdoll, American draft evader, at Eberbach, last January, which was begun here yesterday, was continued today. With the two Americans there were placed on trial four Germans, who, it is alleged, were their accomplices in an attempt to kidnap Bergdoll. The case is being tried before the local criminal court.

Neuf and Zimmer are charged with "illegal assumption of authority," while an additional charge of "carelessly inflicting bodily injury" has been preferred against Neuf. This charge is a result of wounds inflicted upon a young woman by shots fired, it is averred by the Americans, while they were attempting to arrest Bergdoll. The Germans who are being tried are Gustav Steiger, Gottfried Reim, August Farnbach and Herr Heidebrand. They are accused of aiding and abetting the Americans.

WILL HOLD HEARING
ON PACKING PLANT

Preparations are being made at city hall for one of the most largely attended hearings in years tomorrow night when the municipal council will hear the proponents and opponents of the petition of Bartholomew Scannell that a license be granted to the establishment of a slaughter house and packing plant on the site of the former Harvard brewery in Payson street.

The hearing will start promptly at 7:30 o'clock and will be held in the aldermanic chamber on the second floor of the municipal building. There has been some agitation to have the hearing held in Memorial hall so that accommodations will be available for a large crowd, but unless the members of the council decide otherwise before the evening session, the hearing will take place in city hall.

The petition has been before the council for several months and at practically every meeting at least one petition has been received either for or against the project. These have been placed on file and will receive due consideration when the council meets tomorrow evening.

MORE CONVICTIONS
IN BUILDING PROBE

NEW YORK, March 22.—Charles A. Murphy, John L. Knight and the Wells & Newton Co., master plumbers, were convicted today of violating the state anti-trust law. Frank J. Fee was acquitted. Their prosecution developed from the Lockwood legislative committee's investigation of the Building Trades. The jury, which was out 17 hours, urged leniency for Knight.

The defendants were accused of conspiring in operation of John T. Heitrick's secret "code of practice" said to have functioned in restraint of competition in the trade.

OUTLAW BOOZE SEIZED

Four and one-half quarts of whiskey and two and one-half quarts of gin have been seized by the members of the liquor squad from a Suffolk street near-beer saloon. The stuff, state the officers, was concealed in a hole in the wall to which access was gained by a sliding panel. No arrests have as yet been made in connection with the case.

DECLARES WAR
ON DRUG RINGFight to Curb Traffic Opened
by Police Commissioner
Carleton of New YorkSays International Ring Headed
by Men in Germany,
Japan and EnglandRaids on Ships Planned and Developments of Startling
Nature Expected

NEW YORK, March 22.—Opening of a fight to curb the traffic of an international drug ring said to be headed by business men of Germany, Japan and England, was announced here today by Dr. Carleton Simon, special deputy police commissioner.

Declaring officers of steamships plying between New York and Mediterranean and South American ports have been transporting drugs to this country, Dr. Simon said many raids were planned and developments of a startling nature expected. The crews of six steamships now are under surveillance.

Dr. Simon says the leaders of the ring have been identified but that action against them is impossible as the laws of their countries do not prohibit trafficking in narcotics.

Drugs manufactured in Germany, it is charged, have been carried from that country into Switzerland by means of underground passageways, which have been discovered. Through Switzerland the drugs have been transported to America, China, Japan and Italy.

In the anti-narcotic drive here in the past four months more than 1000 arrests have been made and millions of dollars' worth of drugs seized, according to Commissioner Simon.

Although the illegal drug trade has pointed to New York, it is not only to continue here but is to be enlarged to meet the problems in other big cities in America and abroad.

By means of an international bureau of criminal records now being established, all data concerning drug crooks is to be ready for cities where "leads" pointing to New York might be uncovered, the commissioner said. Recently, he added, Antwerp police had requested information concerning an alleged leader of the international ring. It was shown by means of information furnished by New York that the man had police records in London, Paris, Brussels and New Orleans and had served prison sentences at various places aggregating 20 years.

"We made more arrests these past four months than in any 21 months heretofore," said Dr. Simon, who was selected to direct the drive because of his medical training. Every wing of the metropolitan police department was co-ordinated, working in conjunction with the federal agents. In consequence, "the rat" has been spread through the ranks of vendors.

Before he assumed his job, Dr. Simon said traffic in drugs in New York had reached an amazing stage. His first move was to seek to clean up New York, then aid in solving the drug vending problem in other cities—a resultant evil of the situation here. Squads of special men were spread to all parts of the greater city, expert men being picked to patrol the lower East Side, where vendors were even using school children as "go-betweens" to supply addicts.

Constant watch was kept on incoming ships where alleged smugglers were resorting to all manner of tricks to "sneak" the narcotics into this country. Arrests of persons on the docks revealed drugs hidden in artificial arms and limbs, in suitcases and clothing. Once the anti-narcotic forces were working systematically and arrests became frequent, the situation soon gave evidence of being cleared up.

The almost daily raids in the city reached an climax recently in Brooklyn when agents entered an apartment, arrested several persons and seized drugs worth thousands of dollars. The great majority arrested were "couch-potato" vendors.

NEGATIVE REPLY
FROM GERMANYUnofficial Report Says Germany

for Payment of One Billion
Marks Before Mar. 23

BERLIN, March 22.—(By Associated Press)—Germany's reply to the demand of the entente for the payment before March 23 of one billion gold marks, to apply on reparations obligations, will be in the negative, it was unofficially stated today.

The allied reparations commission in a note sent March 16 demanding fulfillment of Article 235 of the peace treaty notified the German government that it must pay one billion gold marks before March 23, and must complete the payment of twenty billion marks gold by May 1. Germany was given until April 1 to submit a proposal to pay the balance of the twenty billion marks otherwise than in cash, leaving the privilege to bring forward a plan for a foreign loan, the proceeds of which should be payable to the commission. It was announced by the commission, however, that Germany had virtually refused to pay the balance, asserting that the twenty billion marks had already been paid in full.

The allied representatives stated the greatest sum they could compute as having been paid by Germany against this account could hardly reach eight billion marks by May 1. It is therefore the initial payment of one billion marks and balance of at least eleven billion marks that the allies are demanding of the German government.

AGREEMENT NEAR IN PACKERS' DISPUTE

WASHINGTON, March 22.—As the cabinet assembled today to consider the controversy between the meat packers and their employees, there were reports that a tentative agreement was being approached. One plan being considered was that the wage reductions which went into effect yesterday should stand; that the packers agree to extend the Alschuler agreement providing for settlement of differences by a permanent arbitrator and that an eight-hour day be agreed upon subject to peculiar conditions obtaining in the industry.

Parties to the conferences which have been conducted with Secretaries Davis, Hoover and Wallace refused to discuss the reports and cabinet officials maintained their silence. It was said, however, that a prospect of a tentative agreement had resulted from private conferences held by the cabinet officers last night with the packers and representatives and by Secretary Davis this morning with the spokesmen for the workers.

UNION NATIONAL BANK WINS CASE

In the proceedings instituted by the Union National bank of Lowell against George S. Motley, Joseph A. Nesmith and Frank E. Dunbar, trustees of the John Nesmith real estate trust, the supreme judicial court has sustained the decision of the land court that the Union National bank may close up and discontinue that part of the common entrance, stairways and landings between its building and the building of the Nesmith real estate trust which is on the premises of the bank.

The principle of law involved in the case has been the subject of discussion in other jurisdictions and would now seem to be established clearly by the decision of the supreme judicial court in this commonwealth.

Charles S. Lilley and Frederick P. Marble were counsel for the bank and Currier & Young, G. A. Sawyer, Frederick B. Greenhalge and Samuel H. Pillsbury were counsel for the Nesmith real estate trust.

The bank, because of its rapidly growing business, has been contemplating the erection of a new building and now that the decision of the land court has been sustained the bank will be enabled to avail itself of the full width of its lot in Merrimack street.

TAUNTON, March 22.—A spectacular fire practically destroyed the plant of the Presbrey Stove Lining Co. here at midnight. The loss was estimated at $100,000. The Presbrey plant, which is on Somerset avenue, covered five acres.

The flames, driven by the wind, for a time menaced the Taunton Gasworks, about a hundred yards distant.

The origin of the fire has not been determined. A watchman who discovered the blaze reported to the police that he thought he had heard an explosion before he saw the blaze.

He had made his rounds, he said, 15 minutes before he found the interior of one of the smaller buildings ablaze and had seen no sign of fire. Railroad tracks are adjacent to the property.

More than 1000 men are thrown out of employment by the fire which was the most destructive in this city since 1912.

Nineteen of the 20 buildings comprising the plant, located in Weir Village, were destroyed.

STUDENTS FROM MAINE

Visitors From Pine Tree
State Inspect Local Industrial Plants

A group of students from the civil engineering department of the University of Maine were in Lowell this afternoon to inspect some of Lowell's modern industrial plants under the direction of members of the faculty and interested alumni.

They arrived here from Lawrence at noon and after luncheon inspected the new plant of the Day State Cotton corporation which is considered by the authorities of the university as one of the best examples of modern civil engineering. The students numbered a score or more and were accompanied by Dean H. S. Boardman, Prof. E. H. Sprague and Norman H. Mayo, contract manager of the Aberthaw Construction Co., one of the alumni who made arrangements for the trip. Following the inspection of the Day State plant, the visitors planned to meet Arthur T. Safford, chief engineer of the Locks & Canal Co. and other speakers on mill construction in Lowell.

The students who visited Lowell today were one of four groups from the University of Maine which are touring New England all this week. Besides the civil engineering group, there are groups of electrical engineering students, mechanical engineers and chemical engineers. The members of the three latter groups were at Lynn today inspecting the plant of the General Electric company. The personnel of the entire tour group consists of about 75 and their tour of this section of the country is an annual affair, arranged by the faculty.

The electrical engineering group is being led by W. E. Barrows, the mechanical engineering group by W. J. Sweetser and the chemical engineering group by C. D. Brautlecht. W. D. Trask, an interested alumnus, is also accompanying the party.

SAYS THAT AMERICA IS PEOPLES' BROTHER

"America stands forth as the great brother of all people," said Rev. Selwyn W. Cummings, formerly of the First Baptist church of this city and now connected with the Huguenot Street church in Boston. In the course of an address before the Lowell Baptist union in Calvary church last night.

"Our brotherhood may cost us something and we may be forced to make sacrifices, but we must make them because that is what we are here for," he declared.

"If we are a brother of our next door neighbor across the sea," he continued, "we may have to give up some of our cherished plans, but if we do it it will be well worth while as when we stand before the judgment seat we can say that we have had a part in making the world free."

"I believe in the personal call to everyone. I did not only issue a call to his ministers but he issues a call to all his children. There isn't one that he does not call sometime for something. Have you kept your car open for the call of Jesus Christ? I sometimes think that speaking from the pulpit is the easiest way that the minister can contribute to the work of God. Every time he walks through the streets, every time he enters a house or shakes another's hand he is spreading the word of God. That is your business just as much as it is that of any preacher. God has no way to make himself known to those around him except through you. Let us feel the thrill of his message to us. Just live as God's men and women, that his heart may beat through our hearts so that those around us may feel the thrill of it and be won to our heavenly father."

Following the address a supper was served under the direction of Mrs. Asa Reed. Dittus was singing during the evening by Hazel Burns and members of the choir of the French Baptist mission. Theodore Dittus was the organist.

The vestry was decorated by the Arvensis class of young women, under the direction of Mrs. Clarence Ware. The music was under the charge of Mrs. Edna Lalline and the welcome was extended by the pastor and his wife, the deacons and their wives and Mrs. Back, Mrs. Dunn and Miss Gordon. The matrons in charge of the tables were Miss Blanche Hutchins, Miss Milled Dixby, Miss Florence Lalline, Mrs. St. Pierre, Mrs. Harold Hanson and Mrs. Emma Bowers. Mrs. Charles Thurston was in charge of the kitchen. She was assisted by Mrs. John Butcher, Mrs. Edna Lalline, Mrs. John Charnly, Mrs. John Dobbis, Mrs. Louis Brown, Mrs. Benjamin Clark, Miss Mary Gordon and Mrs. William Morgan.

SCHOOL PUPILS IN "UNFIT" BUILDINGS

According to a survey recently conducted by the national committee for chamber of commerce co-operation with the public schools and the American city bureau, five per cent, or 730 of Lowell's public schools are housed in unfit buildings. In this survey, pupils in portables, rented buildings, attics, basements or corridors are rated as being housed in unfit buildings.

For other cities, the numbers of pupils housed in unfit buildings are as follows: Fall River, four per cent, or 312; New Bedford, seven per cent, or 1110; Springfield, two per cent, or 563; Worcester, two per cent, or 703. The report states that present congestion makes effective teaching most difficult and is undoubtedly threatening the best physical and moral development of many thousands of our school children throughout the country.

The government's case was described fully by Officer County, of the local vice squad.

PREACHES SIX HOURS New Jersey Pastor Is Finally Put Out

NORTH BERGEN, N. J., March 22.—The story of how Rev. Ernest Whitcomb, pastor of the Bursiah Heights mission of the Church of Jesus, Sunday preached for six hours straight and even munched his supper in the pulpit before surrendering the rostrum to his duly elected successor, became known here yesterday when five parishioners loyal to Mr. Whitcomb were ordered arraigned on charges of disorderly conduct.

When the new pastor, Rev. Harold M. Moss of Springfield, Mass., arrived at the mission to take charge, he found Mr. Whitcomb preaching. Mr. Moss did not desire to interrupt the service, but nevertheless called for two church officers and two policemen. Then he waited for Mr. Whitcomb to end his sermon.

But Mr. Whitcomb preached from 2 p. m. until 8 p. m., and many of his congregation stayed with him. Finally the new pastor called on the old to "resign and get out," at the same time motioning toward the policemen. Mr. Whitcomb then stopped preaching, the five members of his flock placed under arrest were alleged not to have surrendered so meekly.

LADY ASTOR ROUTS BRITISH SOLDIER

PLYMOUTH, Eng., March 22.—Lady Astor had an unpleasant encounter Saturday when, as she was leaving her residence, a soldier halted her, made use of violent language and threatened to kill her. Realizing that a display of fear might be followed by an attack, Lady Astor fought for time and tried to get the man's name and address. Her tactics were so successful that the soldier started to run, with his questioner in close pursuit. The chase led first to some stables and then a public house. The soldier finally was caught and turned over to the police. Lady Astor expressed the wish that no proceedings be taken against the man.

Winter Lingers in Lap of Spring

WASHINGTON, March 22.—Winter still lingers in the lap of spring, government weather experts find, despite the summer-like temperatures of the last day or two. The forecast for tomorrow is generally fair weather east of the Mississippi but frost tonight in the Ohio valley and middle Atlantic states north of Virginia, and freezing temperatures in the North Atlantic states and about the Great Lakes.

SWORD DUELLING IN SEN. ATTERBURY FLAYS GERMAN UNIVERSITY NATIONAL AGREEMENTS

HEIDELBERG, Germany, March 22.—Sword duelling in the University of Heidelberg is as popular and as common today as it was more than 500 years ago, when this oldest of German schools was founded. Virtually every student who has passed the first year wears a sword scar on the left side of his chin or the left cheek, or a bandaged head which advertises that the scar is in the making.

Duels do not always arise from anger or quarrels, but out of the necessity of providing the student with the diploma of sword prowess, or to give him sword practice which affords students great delight. They are sometimes arranged, like a boxing bout, by fraternities which have developed certain differences of opinion. Five round duels are popular.

"Surgeons stand by to sew up the wounds after each round, which usually last a minute," said a Heidelberg man, who wore a deep scar on his chin. "If neither student is badly damaged, the fight will go the full number of rounds decided upon, after which the stitches the surgeons have taken will be counted and the man with the fewest stitches will be declared the winner."

"Should, at any time during the encounter, a combatant dodge a sword stroke his opponent is immediately declared winner. That is the unforgivable thing in the students' duelling code—to dodge a stroke."

Except infrequent combats between older students, when heavy swords are used, duelling in Heidelberg is not dangerous. The heads and necks of the fighters and the abdomen, are protected by leather guards.

Some of the favorite duelling places are ancient cafes and beer rooms the floors of which are always covered with sand, the walls lined with huge mugs and hung with engravings, old pictures and trophies of the fight. These places are sacred to students and it would be a serious offense against custom of half a thousand years for a stranger to wander in and sit down in some storied chair.

The university is still a law unto itself, and the civil authorities of the town of Heidelberg never, under any pretext, interfere in student affairs. Punishment is administered to refractory students by university authorities. The university "jail" is now in the top story of the building. It is a custom for the student confined in one of these cells to leave his name and the date of his imprisonment written on the walls.

CHICAGO, March 22.—Brig. Gen. W. W. Atterbury, vice president of the Pennsylvania railroad and former chairman of the railway executives' labor committee, took an emphatic stand against national agreements, which he termed "proliferation of misunderrstandings," in a heated all-day cross-examination before the railroad labor board yesterday.

Questioning by Frank P. Walsh, counsel for the union, brought vigorous replies from Gen. Atterbury, and time and again the witness replied by cross-questioning his interrogator. Charges that the union leaders did not really represent the employees and that the national rules were used to procure employment for more men and extract money from roads on technicalities were hurled across the table as the general took his stand against all rules of national application.

The gist of Gen. Atterbury's testimony may be summarized thus: Rules should be negotiated between officials of the roads and their own employees, across the conference table. "Like a game of poker."

The eight-hour day could not be universally applied to all employees, especially train service men, "because the Lord did not build the railroads that way."

National rules constituted a dog collar around the necks of the railroads, which would be free to negotiate their own rules with their own employees. "The minute the board cuts the dog collar."

Gen. Atterbury declared that although the national agreements had the object of employing more men, he was "a better friend of my men than any of the union men at this table."

Shortly afterward in a discussion of specific rules the general demanded that the rules be interpreted clearly and words defined. Mr. Walsh said he thought the ordinary meaning of words applied. This brought a quick retort from the witness.

"Yes, but when it comes to devising means and methods of getting money out of a rule, you gentlemen are the most expert of any I know."

"These rules appear very clear to me, Gen. Atterbury," Mr. Walsh said. "That's because you don't know any-

JAPANESE SITUATION FORCED TO LAY OFF FROM WORK, HE SAYS

Bishop Hira-iwa Says Harding to Adopt Morris-
Shidehara Agreement

NEW YORK, March 22.—Bishop Yoshitatsu Hira-iwa, of the Japanese Methodist church, now in this city, declared today that while he was in Washington Count Shidehara, Japanese ambassador, had expressed to him belief that the Harding administration would adopt the Morris-Shidehara agreement in final settlement of the Japanese situation in California.

"The Japanese public is anxiously awaiting news to this effect," said the bishop. "The Morris-Shidehara agreement will be satisfactory to the Japanese people, but it leaves unsolved the problem of racial expansion, which is pressing."

"The Japanese still look toward the western hemisphere as the only logical ground for immigration. But contrary to belief in this country, they are willing to amalgamate with the people among whom they settle."

"Japan does not want Hawaii or the Philippines. The present friction has been greatly augmented, however, by the suddenly increased garrisons and the extensive fortifications being erected there."

"Frankly, the Japanese people are extremely nervous over the possibilities of aggression from a nation of such power and wealth as the United States. They do not contemplate beginning any trouble of their own accord."

"There is a strong movement in Japan for reduction of armament because the present military and naval expenses consume more than one-third the yearly budget and the people are burdened with heavy taxes. Any action by the United States toward such an agreement, would find a hearty response in Japan, but it must originate with your country because of the relative size of the two nations."

NEURASTHENIA—NERVE STARVATION

A Disease of the Down Hearted—Practical advice on what to do.

Many a man is broken down and discouraged without having any actual disease in his organs and tissues—he has lost his grip, feels weak and nervous and everything looks dark. He is suffering from the principal American disease—Neurasthenia or nerve starvation, due to over-work, worry, continual hurry and nervous strain. The longer this continues the more seriously will it end in real disease of his organs, his nerves or his mind.

Such a man should live on the simple foods, eat plenty of cooked fruit and green vegetables, sleep nine hours at night if he can, an hour in the afternoon and feed his starving nerves and weak, thin blood with a good nerve and blood food, like Nuxated Iron. Nuxated Iron contains a product brought to the attention of the French Academy of Medicine by the celebrated Dr. Tablin, which represents the principal chemical constituent of active living nerve force. It also contains genuine iron from the iron in your blood and also the iron in spinach, lentils and apples.

Nuxated Iron may therefore be said to be a real nerve and blood food since it supplies the principal ingredients demanded by your nerves and blood to give you strength, energy, force and endurance. It often increases the bodily and mental vigor of weak, nervous, down hearted and nervous folks in two weeks' time. Your money will be refunded by the manufacturers if it does not produce perfectly satisfactory results. For sale by all druggists.—Adv.

stroyed by fire late yesterday, a short time after the 1000 pupils had been dismissed.

Only the teachers and a few children were in the building when the alarm was given and all escaped safely. Five residences on an adjoining street were damaged.

Boys are believed by the police to have been responsible for the fire and an investigation that may lead to arrests is being conducted last night. The police were informed by Charles Dreyfus, who gave the alarm, that he noticed smoke coming from the basement and, upon going to investigate, found two boys standing before a bundle of burning rags and papers.

When he started to trample out the blaze, Dreyfus, in his statement to the police, said the boys pleaded with him to let it burn so they would not have to go back to school.

MATRIMONIAL

Mr. Harold L. Bickford and Miss Mary Gomes were married Saturday at the home of the groom, 522 Central street, the officiating clergyman being Rev. Dr. C. E. Fisher. On March 15, at the same address, Mr. Vernon Bickford and Miss Alice Savari were married by Rev. Dr. Fisher. Both couples will make their home at 522 Central street.

Selmerst—Dinobio
The marriage of Mr. Stephen Selmerst and Miss P. Dinobio, both of North Elmwood, took place recently at the home of Rev. Dr. C. E. Fisher.

MRS. WILSON AT WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON, March 22.—Mrs. Woodrow Wilson called at the White House late yesterday afternoon and had tea with Mrs. Harding. She spent half an hour chatting pleasantly with the new first lady of the land, who received her informally.
President and Mrs. Wilson drove to the White House shortly after the inauguration and left their cards.
The first labor college in the United States opened in 1920 at Springfield, Mass.

Presents Loan Orders

tric light. Mr. Murphy explained that 300 or 400 feet of gas pipe would have to be laid if a gaslight were installed. The order was adopted.

An order directing the commissioner of streets and highways to prepare for the usual watering and oiling of streets and to report thereon to the municipal council, was adopted.

The council also adopted an order to re-establish the grade of a portion of Pawtucket street.

A protest against the proposed packing plant in Fayon street was received from Charles L. Wood and 21 other residents of Fort Hill avenue and Pleasant street. It was ordered placed on file.

The council voted to adopt an order fixing the time of payment of bonds to be negotiated under authority of the high school loan of 1915. This loan originally totalled $750,000, of which $300,000 has been borrowed. At the time the first loan was made the council passed an order regulating the issue of bonds for the entire amount, but attorneys of the First National bank have requested that a separate order be passed for the $400,000 which is still unborrowed. The explanation was made to the council by City Treasurer Fred H. Bourke.

Paving and Macadam Loans
An order was introduced by Commissioner Murphy to borrow $50,000 for paving and another to borrow $50,000 for macadam work. The council directed the city clerk to advertise both orders before action is taken.

A requisition upon the purchasing agent for 140,000 gallons, more or less, of 45 and 55 per cent asphaltic road oil to be delivered and applied subject to the direction of the commissioner of streets and highways was approved.

Another requisition, calling for the purchase of sufficient sewer castings, manhole frames, covers, etc., for the needs of the sewer department for 1921, was also approved.

Approval was likewise given requisitions submitted by Commissioner Murphy for 10,000 feet of Portland sewer pipe and 1000 barrels of Portland cement.

Jurors Are Drawn
Commissioner Donnelly drew the names of the following men to serve as traverse jurors at the session of superior court which opens in this city on the first Monday in April:

ASTHMA WOULDN'T LET HIM LIE DOWN

Hasn't Had a Sign of Trouble Now for Over 9 Months.

"A year ago I had asthma so bad my friends thought I would never get over it. I had doctors for a long time without results. I had not been in bed for 3 weeks, could not even sit up straight in a chair. Then I heard of Mils Emulsion and started using it. It was only two days later that I could go to bed and sleep soundly. After taking eight bottles (31 worth) I found myself completely cured. It is over 9 months now since I quit taking Mils Emulsion. I haven't had a symptom of asthma since."—Geo. W. Baker, R.F.D. 1, Latrobe, Pa.

Why shouldn't Mils Emulsion help you? It has worked wonders for others. It costs nothing to try.

Mils Emulsion is a pleasant, nutritive food and a corrective medicine. It restores healthy, natural bowel action, doing away with all need of pills and cathartics. It promotes appetite and quickly puts the digestive organs in normal, healthy condition. As a builder of flesh and strength, Mils Emulsion is strongly recommended to those whose sickness has weakened, and is a powerful aid in restoring and repairing the effects of wasting diseases. Chronic stomach trouble and constipation are promptly relieved—usually in one day. This is the only solid emulsion made, and so palatable that it is eaten with a spoon like ice cream.

No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try Mils Emulsion under this guarantee—Take six bottles honestly, you will be promptly cured. If not, your money will be promptly refunded. The Mils Emulsion Co., Toros Haute, Ind. Sold by Fred Howard and all first class druggists.—Adv.

POLO NOTES
Fall River here tonight.

The Fall River Tigers, runners up in the league, will try to make a comeback to the leaders here tonight. Jean and his charges are after every game and Lowell will be forced to try to hold them in check.

For the past two weeks Fall River has been playing great polo. A week ago the team made a clean sweep of the league. Last week an upset was the Tigers' record. A position of the work of a week ago, could come very close to giving the league the lead.

Frank Hardy, former captain of Lowell, who went to Fall River in exchange for Blount and Conley, is given a chance to show his worth in the work of the past month. With the team is back at goal, Hardy and Jean are strong contenders and make many of the salient points.

An amateur game between the Sacred Hearts and St. Peter's teams will be played tonight before the league game. It will start at 7:30 o'clock.

TWINS WRESTLE
Judges Unable to Tell Which Won Bout

LEXINGTON, Va., March 22.—Motion of Memphis is hanting, whether the champion of Washington is a university here, but whether his name is Henry or Nicholas, only the 112-pound Memphis twins know. They are as alike as peas in a pod and after the first round, the judges were unable to tell which was the better.

The audience roared approval.

Captain of Lowell Team Goes to Fall River in Exchange for Alexander

Ferdie Harkins, captain and second rush of the Lowell polo team, has been traded to Fall River for Alexander, second rush of the Tigers, the trade becoming effective today.

As a result of the deal Harkins will play with Fall River and Alex. with Lowell in the game at the Crescent ring tonight. The transfer of Harkins to Fall River has resulted in Fox Quigley being made captain of the Lowell team.

The trade, one of the most important of the season, was announced by Owner Fred Moore of the Lowell team in a telegram received by The Sun this morning.

JIM DUFFY CONFIDENT OF BEATING BILLY

If confidence and condition count for anything, then Billy Duffy, Everett's candidate for the crown now held by Henry J. Conroy, is in for the beating of his career at the hands of Jimmy Duffy, Joe Lynch's stablemate, when the pair meet at the Crescent A. A. tomorrow night.

Since meeting Billy, Jimmy has appeared in two contests. At Brooklyn, N. Y., three nights after his clash here, Jimmy met and fought a 15-round draw with Al McBee. Tuesday night Jimmy scored a four-round knockout over Soldier Regency. Lightweight champion of the Pacific West in a bout scheduled for 10 rounds at Mitchell field, Long Island, Hennessey was reputed to have scored 10 consecutive knockouts and Jimmy's decisive win has made him a great card on Long Island.

Eddie Mead, Jimmy's manager, will be on the road with Joe Lynch and will be unable to accompany Jimmy. John Cox, who handled Jimmy here before, will represent Mead.

The Duffys are fighting on a winner take all basis. Cox predicts that Jimmy will stop Billy in the fifth round.

Johnny Young, Avila, of Lowell, and Tony Magno, of Boston, will meet in another ten round bout. There will also be an eight round preliminary.

The Crescent A. A. matchmaker announced today that Johnny Wilson, world's middleweight champion, would come here tomorrow to witness the battle of the Duffys. It is expected that Wilson will make a few remarks on his recent bout with Mike O'Dowd.

Everett Scott, shortstop, was the only regular out of the lineup.

Dowd, secretary of the Community Service Chess and Checker club, that the following team will probably go from Lowell April 19 to participate in the Wells Memorial checker club meet: George W. Dearborn, Phineas MacArthur, Thomas Moore, W. P. Foye, Leighton Henderson and Michael J. Dowd. This is only tentative, stated Secretary Dowd, as the letter of invitation was received only this morning, and it is possible that arrangements cannot be made. The following is the letter sent by the Boston checker organization, whose headquarters are located at 955 Washington street:

"Dear Mr. Dowd: We will hold a big checker meet here on Patriots day, Tuesday, April 19. A program will be sent to you in due course. One of the important events on this day will be the contest for the Billings cup by teams from the various clubs and checker associations of Massachusetts. Six men will constitute a team. I trust you will enter a team from Lowell, as you have some strong players who can hold their own with any in the state. The meet will start at 2 p. m. and two games will be played by each contestant, if possible, in two hours, and then the winners will be again matched up for another round. I trust Mr. Dearborn will be with us on that occasion."

The letter is signed by E. W. MacDonald, secretary for the Wells Memorial club.

CREATES VICE PROVINCE

Provincial by O. M. I. Superior General

Announcement was received from Rome late yesterday afternoon to the effect that a vice province had been formed in the present first American province of the Oblate order and that Rev. Eugene J. Turcotte, O.M.I., pastor of St. Joseph's parish, this city, had been appointed vice provincial by Most Rev. Augustin Pontonville, O.M.I., superior general of the Oblate order, with headquarters in Rome.

The new vice province will include St. Joseph's, St. Jean Baptiste's and Notre Dame de Lourdes churches of this city, St. Peter's of Pittsburg, N. Y., and missions in Aurora, Kansas, Fond-du-Lac, Wis., and Egg Harbor, Wis. The reason for the formation of the vice province is said to be to maintain the increasing labor and devotion of the missionaries, as well as to stimulate and encourage in recruiting French speaking priests for the wide scope of missionary work undertaken by the Oblate order in America. The following priests have been appointed on the vice provincial council: Rev. Augustin Pontonville, O.M.I., and Rev. Augustin Pontonville, O.M.I., of St. Joseph's, Rev. Leon Lamotte, O.M.I., of Notre Dame de Lourdes and Rev. Julien Racette, O.M.I., of Pittsburg.

Very Rev. Fr. Turcotte, O.M.I., was born in Canada, but came to this city when a boy. He attended St. Joseph's college in Buffalo, N. Y., and completed his theological studies in the Ottawa university. He came to Lowell in 1917 as an assistant to the pastor and a few months later he was promoted to the position of pastor. For the time being he will make his headquarters in St. Joseph's rectory.

ACCEPT WAGE CUT AND

STRIKE IS AVERTED

BOSTON, March 22.—The threatened strike of the employees of the Boston, Revere Beach & Lynn railroad has been averted. A settlement was reached at a conference before the state board of conciliation and arbitration at the state house yesterday afternoon. By the terms of the settlement the employees agree to accept a reduction in wages of three-fifths of the proposed cut of 57 cents a day, or approximately 52 cents per day. The working conditions will remain the same. This means that the basic day will remain at 100 miles. The new wage scale will go into effect on Thursday, March 24.

In the announcement of reduction in wages, posted by the officials of the road, it was stated that a reduction of 57 cents per day would be inaugurated, and that rates of pay would be computed on a basis of 102 1/2 miles a day instead of the present scale of 100 miles.

Grand lodge officers of the "Big Five" who came on to Boston to handle the situation contended that the increasing of the mileage per day would wipe out all overtime pay, and in addition to the reduction of 57 cents, would mean practically a cut of $1.30 per day.

Under the new wage scale which goes into effect this week, engineers will be paid $5.41 in place of $6.33, the old rate, and $6.06 the first proposed cut. Firemen will receive $4.78 in place of $5.39 the old rate, and $4.43 the proposed cut. Conductors will receive $6.16 in place of $6.85 the old rate, and $5.81 the proposed cut. Baggage men will receive $3.53 in place of $3.55, or $3.43 the proposed cut. Trainmen will receive $4.12 in place of $4.14, or $4.27 the proposed cut.

SMITH AND WOMAN
COMPANION HELD

BOSTON, March 22.—Randolph Wellford Smith, formerly vice president and publicity agent of the Loyal Coalition, who lives at the Parker house, and a woman who gave her name as Elizabeth Shepherd Smith, who also claims the Parker house as her residence and with whom he was arrested on a serious statutory charge in Worcester on Sunday night, was arraigned in the central municipal court yesterday with the Smith woman before Judge Wentworth. They pleaded not guilty and were held in $500 each for a hearing on April 4.

During the court proceedings there was considerable excitement in Pemberton square and at the court house, where a large crowd of people had gathered to catch a glimpse of the defendants. The warrant for their arrest was procured on the opening of Russia to foreign influences, indicated in a number of treaties and agreements already concluded or about to be negotiated, is a matter of first class importance.

rest was procured on Saturday by Special Officer Manning of station 2. The couple were arrested in Worcester Sunday afternoon following a communication to the Worcester police by the Boston authorities.

In court yesterday Officer Manning was accompanied by Smith's alleged wife, he said, who is understood to live in New York and who, she alleges, has not seen Smith since 1917. It is alleged that she claims to have seven children and that Smith is the father of them.

Demand Lloyd, president of the Loyal Coalition, issued the following statement yesterday in regard to Randolph Wellford Smith, described as an ex-member of the staff of the Loyal Coalition:

MUST REORGANIZE

VIRTUAL RECOGNITION OF SOVIET GOVERNMENT

LONDON, March 22.—(By the Associated Press)—The Anglo-Russian agreement, carried through by Premier Lloyd George and Sir Robert Stevenson Horne, president of the board of trade, in the face of determined opposition both from within and without the cabinet is generally regarded as more important from its political than its economic implications. Although it does not recognize the soviet government in the regular diplomatic sense of the word, it is nevertheless, tantamount to recognition of the de facto government and is most likely, according to the view held in well informed circles, to be followed in the not distant future by a regular political treaty.

Moreover, while it does not establish friendly relations, it at least establishes non-hostile relations.

The strongest advocates of the agreement, while not ignoring its economic importance and desirability as promoting trade, have usually laid stress on the belief that more could be accomplished in freeing the soviet regime from its most objectionable features by opening Russia and the Russian people to intercourse with the world than could be achieved by a policy of isolation and antagonism.

The recent rising at Kronstadt is regarded here as symptomatic of the discontent of large classes of the population of Russia, especially the peasants with the dictatorial methods of the soviet administration. This discontent only became apparent because Russia, after several years' military struggle against forces within and without, is experiencing now an era of comparative peace and allowing the ferment of natural political forces to re-assert itself. It is argued that this ferment will continue with continued peace and probably bring about the evolution of a more democratic form of government.

From this viewpoint the opening of Russia to foreign influences, indicated in a number of treaties and agreements already concluded or about to be negotiated, is a matter of first class importance.

YEARS' SENTENCE

PHILADELPHIA, March 22.—Peter D. Treadway, who was convicted of murder in the second degree on Saturday for killing Henry T. Piers, manufacturers sales agent, here last November, was sentenced yesterday to serve from 15 years, six months, to 20 years.

Had Judge Anderson imposed the maximum penalty of 20 years, Treadway would have been entitled to a commutation of six years for good behavior. Under the law a prisoner must serve a minimum sentence before he is granted time off.

The government has 30 reclamation projects on hand covering an aggregate of 3,200,000 acres.

FORDNEY TARIFF BILL

WILLING TO SHARE
HER GOOD FORTUNE

Mrs. Stephen Murphy, of No. 74 Dartmouth street, Manchester, N. H., might still be suffering as many other men and women are suffering today, had she not discovered the right tonic in time. She is anxious therefore that others should share her good fortune. She says:

"Overwork and irregular eating hours undermined my strength and health about three years ago. My stomach was so weak that nearly everything I ate caused severe pain, and there was an almost constant pain in my side in the region of the heart. I was very weak and could hardly do my work. I was melancholy and worried constantly. At night I rolled and tossed so that what sleep I got did me little good."

"A woman who had been benefited by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills one day advised me to try the remedy and I started the treatment. In two weeks' time my stomach improved and after I had taken the pills for nine weeks I was completely restored to health. I sleep soundly now and am rested in the morning. I eat anything I want without discomfort and the pains in my left side have disappeared. My housework is no longer a drudgery for I do not get tired easily. I have told many of my friends about what Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have done for me."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists or direct from the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., on receipt of price, 60 cents per box. Write for the free book, "Building Up the Blood."—Adv.

SUIT STYLES FOR THE YOUNG MAN

May Be Found Where the Stock Is Brand New.

The young man who is out looking for up-to-date in an Easter and spring suit will exercise good judgment by making his selection at the store that has a brand new stock on hand to serve his wants. There is no danger of serious error if he visits one of these stores that is carrying over last season's goods and unloading them on an unsuspecting public on the pretense of being this season's product.

The Merrimack Clothing Company, couldn't do this, even if it wanted to. "The $20,000 Under Cost Sale" of the recent past practically cleaned this store of its stock and they were obliged to replenish earlier than usual this spring. The selections are away ahead of anything shown elsewhere, and are the first pick of the advanced styles and makes of the country's biggest manufacturers. You'll say so when you "look them over." One glance will convince you that they are new and distinctive in style, color, combinations and fit.

Dress up in a Merrimack suit or coat, and you'll have them looking after you as you pass by, and wondering "where he bought it." See our window display. It's convincing.—Adp.

The funeral cortege, headed by a firing squad of the American legion and a delegation of naval officers and seamen, left the funeral parlors of Undertakers Amodeo Archambault & Sons in Merrimack street at 9:50 o'clock and wended its way to St. Louis church where at 10 o'clock a high mass of requiem was celebrated by Donat Boisvert. The new election commission bill which was introduced into the legislature early in the present session to provide for the complete divorce of the city clerk's office from the elections department, for the appointing of the election commissioners by the mayor instead of by the city council and for continuous registration sessions, has become state law. DECLARES WAR ON DRUG RING

Fight to Curb Traffic Opened
by Police Commissioner
Carleton of New York

Says International Ring Headed by Men in Germany,
Japan and England

Raids on Ships Planned and

NEW YORK, March 22.—Opening of a fight to curb the traffic of an international drug ring said to be headed by business men of Germany, Japan and England, was announced here today by Dr. Carlton Simon, special deputy police commissioner.

Declaring officers of steamships plying between New York and Mediterranean and South American ports have been transporting drugs to this country, Dr. Simon said many raids were planned and developments of a startling nature expected. The crews of six steamships now are under surveillance.

Dr. Simon says the leaders of the ring have been identified but that action against them is impossible as the laws of their countries do not prohibit trafficking in narcotics.

Drugs manufactured in Germany, it is charged, have been carried from that country into Switzerland by means of underground passageways, which have been discovered. Through Switzerland these drugs have been transported to America, China, Japan and Italy.

In the anti-narcotic drive here in the past four months more than 1000
arrests have been made and millions of dollars' worth of drugs seized, according to Commissioner Simon.

Although the illegal drug trade has been broken, Dr. Simon asserted the work of his bureau is not only to continue here but is to be enlarged to meet the problems in other big cities
in America and abroad.

By means of an international bureau
of criminal records now being established, all data concerning drug crooks is to be ready for cities where "leads"
pointing to New York might be uncovered, the commissioner said. Recently, he added, Antwerp police had requested information concerning an alleged leader of the international ring.
It was shown by means of information
furnished by New York that the man had police records in London, Paris, Brussels and New Orleans and had served prison sentences at various places aggregating 20 years.

"We made more arrests these past four months than in any 24 months heretofore," said Dr. Simon, who was selected to direct the drive because of his medical training. Every wing of the metropolitan police department
was co-ordinated, working in conjunction with the federal agents. In consequence, "the fear has been spread through the army of crooks that they had been assumed his job. Dr. Simon said traffic in drugs in New York had reached an amazing stage.
His first move was to seek to clean up New York, then aid in solving the drug vending problem in other cities—
a resultant evil of the situation here.
Squads of special men were spread out to all parts of the greater city, expert men being picked to patrol the lower East Side, where vendors were even using school children as "go-between"
to supply addicts.

Constant watch was kept on incoming ships where alleged smugglers were resorting to all manner of tricks
to "sneak" the narcotics into this country. Arrests of persons on the docks revealed drugs hidden in artificial arms and limbs, in sausages and clothing. Once the anti-narcotic forces were working systematically and arrests became frequent, the situation
soon gave evidence of being cleared up.
The almost daily raids in the city
reached a climax recently in Brooklyn
when agents entered an apartment, arrested several persons and seized drugs worth thousands of dollars. The great majority arrested were "curb-stone" vendors.

NEGATIVE REPLY FROM GERMANY

Unofficial Report Says Germany Will Refuse to Comply With Allied Demand

Entente Ultimatum Called for Payment of One Billion Marks Before Mar. 23

BERLIN, March 21.—(By Associated Press).—Germany's reply to the demand of the entente for the payment
before March 23 of one billion marks
gold, to apply on reparations obligations, will be in the negative, it was unofficially stated today.

The allied reparations commission in a note sent March 16 demanding fulfillment of Article 235 of the peace treaty notified the German government that it must pay one billion marks
before March 23, and must complete the payment of twenty billion marks gold by May 1. Germany was given until April 1 to submit a proposal to pay the balance of the twenty billion marks otherwise than in cash, having the privilege to bring forward a plan for a foreign loan, the proceeds of which should be payable to the commission. It was announced by the commission, however, that Germany had virtually refused to pay the balance, asserting that the twenty billion marks had already been paid in full.
The allied representatives stated the greatest sum they could compute as having been paid by Germany against this account, could hardly reach eight billion marks by May 1. It is therefore the initial payment of one billion marks and a balance of at least eleven billion marks that the allies are demanding of the German government.

TREW BABIES TO STREET JUMPED AFTER THEM

NEW YORK, March 22.—Alleged to have thrown her two babies from a fourth floor window of a Brooklyn tenement and to have jumped after them, Mrs. Bridget Mulfall was taken early today, with the infants, to the Jewish hospital, where it is feared all three may die.

The police, after removing the trio
to the hospital, consulted their records and reported that four months ago, Mrs. Mulfall was found in a room with the children with the gas turned on.

Mrs. Mulfall was soon to become a mother again.

ENTIRELY NEW TYPE OF A SEAPLANE

LONDON, March 22.—Details of an entirely new type of seaplane which can either fly or cruise as a warship have been made public here. Two of these ships are being built for the air ministry. The vessels are said to be much like small ships with wings added. They are larger and stronger than any sea-going aircraft yet constructed and each will carry a crew of seven with accommodations for five machine guns.

LOWER STREET CAR FARES

Order Offered in House
Today by Rep. Victor F.
Jewett

Adoption of Order Would Mean Lower Fares in This City

Lowell Charter Bill is Still in Custody of Senate Committee

(Special to The Sun)
STATE HOUSE, Boston, March 22.—
An order directing the public trustees of the Eastern Massachusetts Street Railway company to report to the legislature forthwith what relief, if any,
may be given the people of Lowell in respect to lower fares, was offered in the house today by Rep. Victor F. Jewett of Lowell.

The order directs the trustees to inform the general court whether it is not now possible to render service in Lowell for a five-cent fare; and if it is not possible, why it is not.

If a five-cent fare is not possible,
the trustees are directed by the order
to report whether some other fare lower than that now charged will be sufficient to meet operating expenses; and if no reduction in fare is possible,
whether additional transfer privileges
should be granted.

WILL HOLD HEARING ON PACKING PLANT

Preparations are being made at city hall for one of the most largely attended hearings in years tomorrow night when the municipal council will hear the proponents and opponents of the petition of Bartholomew Scannell
that a license be granted for the establishment of a slaughter house and packing plant on the site of the former Harvard brewery in Payson street.

The hearing will start promptly at 7:30 o'clock and will be held in the aldermanic chamber on the second floor of the municipal building. There has been some agitation to have the hearing held in Memorial hall so that accommodations will be available for a large crowd, but unless the members of the council decide otherwise before tomorrow evening, the hearing will take place in city hall.

The petition has been before the council for several months and at practically every meeting at least one petition has been received either for or against the project. These have been placed on file and will receive due consideration when the council
meets tomorrow evening.

ACTION ON A PLAN FOR BETTER STREETS

At the meeting of the board of directors of the chamber of commerce last Monday, it is announced as probable that further steps will be taken toward urging action by the municipal council on the plan submitted by the chamber for improving the streets of the city. The report was the outcome of a careful survey made by experienced engineers. When it was presented to the council, Commissioner Dennis A. Murphy asked that the names of the engineers should be made known and it was promised at the time that the information would be furnished
later. The chamber's recommendation

RUSSIAN BAGGAGE HELD IN ITALY

ROME, March 22.—Baggage belonging to the Russian commercial delegation to Italy, which has been held up at the railroad station here for several days pending examination, has been turned over to the director of customs by Italian officials. Search of the 24 boxes showed a large number of jewels, Persian carpets, red guard uniforms, silks, skin hangings, furs and lingerie. Many documents were found in the boxes.

FRAMING PERMANENT TARIFF BILL

WASHINGTON, March 22.—Actual work of framing a permanent tariff bill was begun today by the house ways and means committee, which appointed five sub-committees to prepare various schedules to be presented to the full committee.

Only republican members will participate as is the usual legislative custom. A sub-committee of North Dakota will take charge of the emergency tariff to be introduced by Mr. Young on the opening day of the extra session.
The Fordney bill, passed last session and vetoed, will be presented in its same form except that it will run for six months instead of 10.

Permanent tariff subjects to be handled by sub-committees include:
Chemicals, metals, agriculture, cotton,
wool, glassware, lumber and other subjects.

CASES HEARD IN POLICE COURT

Men Arrested for Drunkenness Carried "Jakey Cocktails" in Bottles

Defendant in Larceny Case, Delayed by Automobile
Trouble, Defaulted

The old days when whiskey could be secured for a dime in little bottles containing about one drink and called "alpa," or "smiles," were revisited this morning in the police court when two small, flat bottles which held "jakey cocktails" were exhibited to Judge Enright. John Sidney, who pleaded guilty to drunkenness, had them in his possession when arrested. Sidney was released from jail yesterday morning after having done three months for habits of inebriation. It seemed to him that an appropriate way to celebrate his new freedom would be to partake moderately of "jameky." However, his politeness apparently extended beyond his original intention, for Officer William Killey, who made the arrest together with Officer Sheehan, testified this morning that he found Sidney "down for the count." The defendant, 35 years old, is a laborer, and told Judge Enright that he would like to be freed so that he could go to work in Lincoln, N. H. But his honor was reluctant. The police records show that Sidney has been in five times within a year, and has spent half his time during that period in jail, on two different sentences, the "went up" for three months in July, came before the court

PRESENTS LOAN ORDERS STUDENTS FROM MAINE

Highway Commissioner Murphy Preparing for Street
Improvement Activities

The first step in this year's program for street improvement in Lowell was taken by Commissioner Dennis A.
Murphy at this morning's meeting of the city council when he introduced two loan orders to provide for paving and macadam work during the coming season.

The first order provided for the borrowing of $50,000 for permanent pavement and the second $50,000 for macadam work. Both orders were referred to the city clerk to be advertised in the customary way on days before the council meeting and voted to approve regulations for road oil, sewer
castings, sewer pipe and cement.

Further preparations for the active season of the department were in evidence when the council instructed Commissioner Murphy to map out his plan of street sprinkling and oiling for the coming season and voted to approve regulations for road oil, sewer
castings, sewer pipe and cement.

Routine Matters
The meeting was called at 10:30. Mr.
Salme was absent but came in later.

A hearing was held on the petition
of the New England Telephone and Telegraph company for a pole location in Pleasant street. William Morse was opposed.

Mrs. William Burt appeared in favor of the petition of the New England
Telephone & Telegraph Co. for a pole location in Marsh street. The matter was referred to Commissioners Murphy and Marchand.

A hearing was held on the petition
of the same company for two pole locations in West Sixth street. Mrs.
Mary Connaughton opposed the petition by letter. Referred to Messrs.
Marchand and Murphy.

The same company petitioned for two pole locations in Cross street.
There was no remonstrance and the matter was referred.

Commissioner Salmon reported favorably on the petition of the Moynihan Bros. Auto Co. for a gasoline license at 118-52 Broadway and the license was granted.

The petition of Pierre Brunelle, Jr., that a sidewalk be laid on the westerly side of Standish street, was referred to Commissioner Murphy.

Similar action was taken on a petition for an arched light at the junction of Moody and Suffolk streets.

The Lowell Electric Light corporation petitioned for two poles in Bachman street off Lakeview avenue. A hearing was set for April 5.

Katherine M. Sheehan entered a claim for bodily injuries and damages to clothing resulting from a fall in High street on March 15. She alleged that the accident was caused by the defective condition of the sidewalks.

The damage to her clothing amounted to $35, she reported.

Commissioners Murphy and Mar-chand reported favorably on the following petitions of the Lowell Electric Light corporation and the accompanying orders were adopted: Two poles
in Moore street near Agawam, two poles in St. Washington street and the construction and maintenance of a manhole in Middlesex st.

$100,000 LOSS IN MIDNIGHT BLAZE

Presbrey Stove Lining Co.

Plant Covering Five Acres Destroyed

Flames Fanned by Heavy Wind—Watchman Reports
Hearing Explosion

TAUNTON, March 22.—A spectacular fire practically destroyed the plant of the Presbrey Stove Lining Co. here at midnight. The loss was estimated at $100,000. The Presbrey plant, which is on Somerset avenue, covered five acres.

The flames, driven by the wind, for a time menaced the Taunton Gasworks,
about a hundred yards distant.

The origin of the fire has not been determined. A watchman who discovered the blaze reported to the police that he thought he had heard an explosion before he saw the blaze.

He and made his rounds, he said.
Fifteen minutes before he found the interior of one of the smaller buildings
ablaze and had seen no sign of fire.
Railroad tracks are adjacent to the property.

More than 1000 men are thrown out of employment by the fire which was the most destructive in this city since 1912.

Nineteen of the 20 buildings comprising the plant, located in Weir Village, were destroyed.

Tariff and Tax Revision to Be Principal Subjects Before New Congress

WASHINGTON, March 22.—A proclamation convening congress in special session at noon April 11, "to receive such communication as may be made by the executive" was issued today by President Harding.

Tariff and tax revision will be the principal subjects before the new congress, but many other important subjects, including the transportation problem, regulation of the packing and coal industries and immigration restriction are expected to be taken up.

None of the subjects to be considered was mentioned in the call for the session, the text of which follows:
"Whereas, public interests require that the congress of the United States should be convened in extra session at 12 o'clock noon, in the city of Washington, on the eleventh day of April, 1921,
to receive such communication as may be made by the executive.

"Now, therefore, I, Warren G. Harding, president of the United States of America, do hereby proclaim and declare that an extraordinary occasion requires the congress of the United States to convene in extra session at the capitol in the city of Washington, on the eleventh day of April, 1921,
at 12 o'clock noon, of which all persons who shall at that time be entitled to act as members thereof, are hereby required to take notice."

TO ENFORCE LAW AGAINST LANDLORDS

A campaign by the police to enforce the laws against landlords of buildings in which illegal dealings in liquor
have taken place, opened late this afternoon, when the first notice on the owner of such a building was served.
The law provides that on conviction of any person for illegal keeping or sale of liquor, the court may issue notice to the owner or agent of the property on which liquor has been sold or kept, notifying him of the conviction, and stating that the notice is deemed sufficient so that any future
sale or keeping makes the owner liable to punishment. The penalty is fixed at not less than $50 nor more than $100 fine, together with not less than three months and not more than one year in jail. The police will immediately commence the strict enforcement of this law, it was announced
this afternoon at the office of the clerk of the police court. The law makes the owner liable, if after notice of conviction is served, he fails to take proper measures to eject from his building
the persons who have occupied the same for illegal purposes. The members of the liquor squad will be charged with the service of these notices.

LOWELL LIQUOR CASES

Six cases involving alleged sale of keeping of liquor in Lowell will come before the superior court at Cambridge tomorrow. The members of the liquor squad will testify to alleged violations of the prohibition laws in each case.

More than 5,000,000 firms and individuals were income tax payers in 1920.

SAYS THAT AMERICA IS PEOPLES' BROTHER

"America stands forth as the great brother of all people," said Rev. Seiden W. Cummings, formerly of the First Baptist church of this city and now connected with the Ruggles Street church in Boston. In the course of an address before the Lowell Baptist union on Calvary church last night.

"Our brotherhood may cost us something, and we may be forced to make sacrifices, but we must make them because that is what we are here for," the speaker said.

"If we are a brother of our next door neighbor across the sea," he continued, "we may have to give up some of our cherished ideas, but if we do it it will be well worth while as when we stand before the judgment seat we can say that we have had a part in making the world free."

"I believe in the personal call to everyone. God not only issues a call to his ministers but he issues a call to all his children. There is not one that he does not call sometime for something. Have you kept your ear open for the call of Jesus Christ? I sometimes think that speaking from the pulpit is the smallest way that the minister can contribute to the work of God. Every time he walks through the streets, every time he enters a house or shakes another's hand he is spreading the word of God. That is your business just as much as it is that of any preacher. God has no way to make himself known to those around you, except through you. Let us feel the thrill of his message to us. Just live as God's men and women, that his heart may rest through our hearts so that those around us may feel the thrill of it and be won to our heavenly father."

Preceding the address a supper was served under the direction of Mrs. Asa Reed Ditts. There was singing during the evening by Hazel Burns and members of the choir of the French Baptist mission. Theodore Ditts was the organist.

The vestry was decorated by the Arvenia class of young women, under the direction of Mrs. Clarence Ware. The music was under the charge of Miss Celina Lalline and the welcome was extended by the pastor and his wife, the deacons and their wives and Mrs. Baeke, Mrs. Dunn and Miss Gordon. The masters in charge of the tables were Miss Blanche Hutchins, Miss Mildred Dixby, Miss Florence Lalline, Mrs. St. Pierre, Mrs. Harold Hunscom and Miss Emma Powers. Mrs. Charles Thurston was in charge of the kitchen. She was assisted by Mrs. John Butcher, Mrs. Edwin Lalline, Mrs. John Charney, Mrs. John Dobbs, Mrs. Louis Brown, Mrs. Benjamin Clark, Miss Mary Gordon and Mrs. William Morgan.

SCHOOL PUPILS IN
"UNFIT" BUILDINGS

According to a survey recently conducted by the national committee for chamber of commerce co-operation with the public schools and the American city bureau, five per cent, or 730 of Lowell's public schools are housed in unfit buildings. In this survey, pupils in portable, rented buildings, attics, basements or corridors are rated as being housed in unfit buildings.

For other cities, the numbers of pupils housed in unfit buildings are as follows: Fall River, four per cent, or 512; New Bedford, seven per cent, or 1149; Springfield, two per cent, or 665; and Worcester, two per cent, or 702. The report states that present congestion makes effective teaching most difficult and is undoubtedly threatening the best physical and mental development of many thousands of our school children throughout the country.

KILLINGS IN IRELAND
Seven Members of Crown
Forces and One Civilian
Killed in Ambush of Train

DUBLIN, March 22.—(By the Associated Press).—Seven members of the crown forces, including an officer, were killed and 12 were wounded when a train was ambushed yesterday, according to official announcements.

The attack occurred near Headford Junction, County Kerry.

A civilian passenger was killed, and two others were wounded. The casualties among the ambushing party, with the exception of one man found dead, are not known.

In addition to the officer who was killed, the train carried 29 men of other ranks in the Royal Fusiliers and a number of civilians. It was heavily fired on from both sides as it neared the junction and the troops detained and engaged the party.

The survivors among the soldiers held off their assailants for 30 minutes, until reinforced by a party of fusiliers which arrived on another train. The combined forces then drove off the rebels.

FINES ARE IMPOSED
IN LOWELL CASES

Gustave Champagne, Max Cohen, Joseph Newshaw, Agnes Blair, Gertrude Evans and Albin Boudry, were each fined $50 yesterday in the superior court, on charges of improper conduct. The six defendants, all connected with the Champagne restaurant case, appeared before Judge Cox at Cambridge, on appeal from the finding of guilty made by the lower court. Counsel asked an acquittal on grounds of insufficient evidence and because it was the first offense of each defendant. The government's case was described fully by Officer Conroy, of the local vice squad.

PREACHES SIX HOURS
New Jersey Pastor Is Finally Put Out

NORTH BERGEN, N. J., March 22.—The story of how Rev. Ernest Whitcomb, pastor of the Bursiah Heights mission of the Church of Jesus, Sunday preached for six hours straight and even punched his supper in the pulpit before surrendering the rostrum to his duly elected successor, became known here yesterday when five parishioners loyal to Mr. Whitcomb were ordered arraigned on charges of disorderly conduct.

When the new pastor, Rev. Harold M. Moss of Springfield, Mass., arrived at the mission to take charge, he found Mr. Whitcomb preaching. Mr. Moss did not desire to interrupt the service, but nevertheless called for two church officers and two policemen. Then he waited for Mr. Whitcomb to end his sermon.

But Mr. Whitcomb preached from 2 p. m. until 8 p. m. and many of his congregation stayed with him. Finally the new pastor called on the old to "resign and get out" at the same time motioning toward the policemen. Mr. Whitcomb then stopped preaching, the five members of his flock placed under arrest were alleged not to have surrendered so meekly.

CAKE SALE BY LADIES' AUXILIARY

The recent cake sale conducted by the ladies' auxiliary of the local American Legion post was a tremendous success. It was reported last evening at a meeting of the body in the Button street headquarters. President Mrs. Carroll Hewitt acted as chairman and called for a rising vote of thanks for the committee, which comprises the following ladies: Mrs. E. H. Hart, chairman; Mrs. Charles Young and Mrs. Edward McDermott. Luther W. Faulkner, past commander of the local post, spoke to the members, commending the auxiliary on the work it has accomplished. Regular routine business occupied the remainder of the session.

Big Class Initiation

A big class initiation of the Foresters of America took place on Sunday afternoon in Odd Fellows building, Middlesex street, with one of the largest gatherings of Foresters in the city since before the war. It was estimated that at least three hundred members of the order were in attendance. It was the nature of a real old-fashioned reunion of Foresters. An informal reception took place previous to the initiation, the members renewing old acquaintances. The grand court officers present from Boston were Grand Chief Ranger John B. Donovan, Grand Secretary William J. Mitchell, Grand Treasurer A. E. Connolly. His Honor the Mayor Perry D. Thompson, who is a member and Hon. Dennis J. Murphy, past grand chief ranger, and the visiting officers spoke at length on the work of the order. The speech-making was interspersed with a musical program by the following local talent: Mr. Ball, Mr. Joseph Reilly and Mr. Hartnett. The musical end of the program was closed by all standing and singing the National Anthem. After the close of the musical program, the members, led by the grand court officers, the invited guests and newly initiated brothers marched to the banquet hall and partook of the dainty buffet lunch, furnished by the different courts and supervised by the committee of arrangements. The committee in charge the affair, also the degree staff, received numerous compliments on the excellent manner in which the ceremony of initiation had been carried out.

Craig, and she was assisted by Misses Mae MacCord and Abby Hitchins of the Sabbath school class.

HOW TO REDUCE VARICOSE VEINS

Many people have become despondent because they have been led to believe that there is no remedy that will reduce swollen veins and hunches. If you will get a two-ounce original bottle of Meane's Emerald Oil (full strength) at any first class drug store and apply it at home as directed, you will quickly notice an improvement which will continue until the veins and hunches are reduced to normal. Meane's Emerald Oil is very concentrated and a bottle lasts a long time—that's why it is a most inexpensive treatment. LADY ASTOR ROUTS
BRITISH SOLDIER

PLYMOUTH, Eng., March 22.—Lady Astor had an unpleasant encounter Saturday when, as she was leaving her residence, a soldier halted her, made use of violent language and threatened to kill her. Realizing that a display of fear might be followed by an attack, Lady Astor fought for time and tried to get the man's name and address. Her tactics were so successful that the soldier started to run, with his quester in close pursuit. The chase led first to some stables and then to a public house. The soldier finally was caught and turned over to the police.

Lady Astor expressed the wish that no proceedings be taken against the man.

CONVICTION REVERSED

WASHINGTON, March 22.—Upon the government's motion confessing error, the supreme court reversed yesterday conviction of Charles W. Steene, Frank L. Preston, and William Hoetz, in New York state under the espionage act. They were sentenced to 15 months' imprisonment each.

The arrest of the trio followed a mass meeting called to urge the release after the armistice was signed of prisoners held for war time offenses.

Schooner Ashore at Great Ledge

WOODS HOLE, March 22.—The schooner William Booth which went ashore at Great Ledge, in a fog yesterday, will have to be partially emptied of her cargo of coal before she can be floated, it was decided today. A lighter was ordered from New York to do the work. The schooner was fast on the rocky ledge today but although a northwest wind kicked-up choppy seas, Captain E. T. Greenleaf said she had sustained no serious damage as yet. The William Booth was bound from New York for Vinal Haven, Me.

New Rule for Americans in Germany

20 Communists Arrested at Milan

MILAN, March 22.—Twenty communists have been arrested here following the search of a number of houses by the police. It is reported that nationalists and socialists have clashed at Canossa, near Reggio, and that there have been a number of casualties.

Winter Lingers in Lap of Spring

WASHINGTON, March 22.—Winter still lingers in the lap of spring, government weather experts find, despite the summer-like temperatures of the last day or two. The forecast for tomorrow is generally fair weather east of the Mississippi but frost tonight in the Ohio valley and middle Atlantic states north of Virginia, and freezing temperatures in the North Atlantic states and about the Great Lakes.

HEIDELBERG, Germany, March 22.—Sword duelling in the University of Heidelberg is as popular and as common today as it was more than 500 years ago, when this oldest of German schools was founded. Virtually every student who has passed the first year wears a sword scar on the left side of his chin or the left cheek, or a bandaged head which advertises that the scar is in the making.

Duels do not always arise from anger or quarrels, but out of the necessity of providing the student with the diploma of sword prowess, or to give him sword practice which affords students great delight. They are sometimes arranged, like a boxing bout, by fraternities which have developed certain differences of opinion. Five round duels are popular.

"Surgons stand by to sew up the wounds after each round, which usually lasts a minute," said a Heidelberg man, who wore a deep scar on his chin. "If neither student is badly damaged, the fight will go the full number of rounds decided upon, after which the stitches the surgeons have taken will be counted and the man with the fewest stitches will be declared the winner."

"Should, at any time during the encounter, a combatant dodge a sword stroke his opponent is immediately declared winner. That is the unforgivable thing in the students' duelling code—to dodge a stroke."

The university is still a law unto itself, and the civil authorities of the town of Heidelberg never, under any pretext, interfere in student affairs. Punishment is administered to refractory students by university authorities. The university "jail" is now in the top story of the building. It is a custom for the student confined in one of these cells to leave his name and the date of his imprisonment written on the walls.

CHICAGO, March 22.—Brig. Gen. W. W. Atterbury, vice president of the Pennsylvania railroad and former chairman of the railway executives' labor committee, took an emphatic stand against national agreements, which he termed "proliferation of misunderstandings," in a heated all-day cross-examination before the railroad labor board yesterday.

Questioning by Frank P. Walsh, counsel for the union, brought vigorous replies from Gen. Atterbury, and time and again the witness replied by cross-questioning his interrogator. Charges that the union leaders did not really represent the employees and that the national rules were used to procure employment for more men and extract money from roads on technicalities were hurled across the table as the general took his stand against all rules of national application.

The gist of Gen. Atterbury's testimony may be summarized thus: Rules should be negotiated between officials of the roads and their own employees, across the conference table, "like a game of poker."

"The eight-hour day could not be universally applied to all employees, especially train service men, because the Lord did not build the railroads that way."

National rules constituted a dog collar around the necks of the railroads, which would be free to negotiate their own rules with their own employees "the minute the board cuts the dog collar."

Gen. Atterbury declared that although the national agreements had the object of employing more men, he was "a better friend of my men than any of the union men at this table."

Shortly afterward in a discussion of specific rules the general demanded that the rules be interpreted clearly and words defined. Mr. Walsh said he thought the ordinary meaning of words applied. This brought a quick retort from the witness:

"Yes, but when it comes to devising means and methods of getting money out of a rule, you gentlemen are the most expert of any I know."

"These rules appear very clear to me, Gen. Atterbury," Mr. Walsh said.

"That's because you don't know anything about them," the witness replied. Gen. CLEAN THE MONUMENT

There are few more important shrines of patriotism anywhere than the Ladd and Whitney monument. With its plain and simple lines, it stands not only as a memorial to the courage and love of country of two Lowell's sons, but it teaches day and day out those lessons of unselfish devotion to the flag, and the nation for which it stands, that lead the farmer to drop his plow, the artisan to lay aside his tools and the business man desert his desk to take their places in the ranks and dare all and do all for the common cause.

Lowell should glory that two of her sons gave the first blood that was shed in the great strife between the north and the south. It was a priceless heritage that was given to her for guarding when the Baltimore mob fired upon the band of men rushing from the national capital to the protection of the two men from this city were laid down to help enunciate the great principle that this nation is one and indivisible.

For a number of years the men of the Grand Army, and their friends, have been pleading with the municipal government that the monument should be cleaned of the dirt and grime that have accumulated upon it through the long years since it was dedicated. At various times it has been promised that the work should be done. On one occasion, in particular, the cleaning could have been done at comparatively small cost to the city. The men in charge of the government at the time, however, thought that they had other, if not better, uses for the money, and the monument remained uncleaned.

When the municipal budget was being considered this year, Mayor Perry D. Thompson announced that it contained an appropriation for putting the monument in presentable condition. Whether this appropriation was included in the finally authorized list of municipal expenditures, is not known for a certainty. The ways of the city fathers in making and altering budgets are strange and wonderful. It is even admitted that what may appear as an appropriation for one thing may often be a cover for the expenditure of money for an entirely different purpose.

The last members of the grand army, who helped to save the nation, are now moving with slow and feeble steps toward their last bivouac. Only a few of the great host who responded to the call of Father Abraham over half a century ago, are left. They fought the good fight. They kept faith with the nation. They deserve to be reminded that their services are held in grateful memory.

The honored old veterans are past the age when they can bring persistent pressure to bear upon the municipal government to have their wish carried out that the monument so dear to them, as it should be to us all, shall be put in proper condition.

It, therefore, remains for those of us who today are enjoying the heritage for which they fought at Gettysburg, Shiloh and the Wilderness shall come to their support and see to it that the small favor they ask of the city is not denied them.

It will be little less than a shame, if the Ladd and Whitney monument is not cared for as it should be before another memorial day passes. It will become a municipal canker, which has authorized the purchase of expensive automobiles and increased the salary of city employees, to let this important work go undone. It should be the part of every patriotic citizen to help bring to bear such an aroused public sentiment upon the council that the little band of old soldiers shall no longer be denied that for which they have so patiently waited.

TO PREVENT DUMPING

The agricultural interests of this country are up in arms against the prospect of foreign importers dumping wool, grain, cotton, dairy products, and other commodities of which there is already a surplus, on these shores. The reports from the departments of commerce and agriculture, indicate that many million dollars' worth of wool, meat, and other agricultural products are on their way from Europe to the United States to be sold at prices lower than the American farmers can afford to sell the same products. This problem is up for settlement and while a demand is made for an embargo on such imports, Secretary Hoover believes that tariff regulations would afford the most practical and least offensive remedy. Under present conditions, the American farmer has many difficulties to meet; and it is only fair to expect that he should be protected against an influx of farm products from abroad to be sold under the prices prevailing in the American markets.

To meet this emergency, the Fordney bill is to be passed with a six months' limitation and this will probably serve the purpose until a general revision of the tariff is provided.

THE CRIMINAL ORGY

During the past two weeks the number of murders, hold-ups and other forms of robbery in New England has been quite alarming. It seems that the holdups with which lower in aid in defiance of the law, in much to do with many of these occurrences. When men are under the influence of strong drink, they will commit crimes which in their sober senses, they would never attempt. One of the first steps, therefore, for the prevention of these crimes is to stop the sale of hard liquor in all its forms. At present "moonshine" is sold quite freely and substitutes for whiskey are also commonly peddled around by bootleggers. It is alleged that some of these conversions drive men about to a state of insanity under which they are liable to commit almost any crime. The police authorities

Shock to the Minister

Tom Cranfill of Texas, prominent in all circles of late, tells the following on a minister who had discovered oil on some land he owned. The minister invited some of his deacons to go with him to the new field, so that they might share in the opportunities. They were breakfasting at the local eating house and had decided that they would order chicken. When the waitress, a calculating and peroxide miss came up, the minister inquired: "How is the chicken this morning?" "All right, sir," she replied. "How are you?"—San Francisco Argonaut.

The Natural End

The "actors" whom Willie Koffy most about are those who do lofty feats in the circus and vaudeville. He has a proper appreciation of the danger of their calling and the means adopted for their safety. Recently he heard his father, while reading a book on theatricals, mention the name of Sir Henry Irving.

"Who is Sir Henry Irving, father?" asked the boy.

"He was a great actor," said the father.

"What show is he with?"

"He isn't with any show now. He's dead."

"What happened? Did he miss the net?"—Harper's.

Early Sinner

It was in the smoking compartment and an obviously self-satisfied little man has been doing most of the talking for some time.

"I tell you," he declared emphatically, "there is nothing like the good old American stock that goes right back to the beginning. Now I don't like to boast, but facts are facts—an ancestor of mine signed the Declaration of Independence."

"That so?" young Jewish traveling man responded mildly. "Interesting, of course, but—well, one of my ancestors signed and certified to a rather more important and older document."

"Nothing on earth more important than the Declaration?" the little man insisted. "What sort of document are you talking about?"

"The Ten Commandments," was the gentle rejoinder.—Elliott Campbell Hall, in Judge.

Be Not Ashamed

Be not ashamed to weep;
Nor hide the hollow art
The path that rankles deep.
The wrong that rots and smart;
No, if you have a heart
Mourn for the woes that sear;
Be not ashamed of tears.

Be not ashamed of eyes
That keep a cold repose,
And the spirit that denies
The agony it knows;
Turned stony through the years,
Be not ashamed of tears.

The heart that counts its gain
To hold, shall hold love's throne;
Who scolds at others' pain
It shall not ease his own;
But shall walk on alone,
Followed by men's fears,
Be not ashamed of tears.

Look where a father sighs,
And mourns his first-born, dead;
Hark where some woman cries
O'er love when love has fled.
Wink your eyes and ears;
Be not ashamed of tears.

—ALFRED ARNOLD.

MAN ABOUT TOWN

"Brisk blubsk buzz buzz." That's the way testimony sounds at the local police court, when cars are rattling over the cobblestones of Market street outside.

Yesterday morning with the mercury soaring to dizzy heights, Judge Enright was forced to order the windows on the street side of the building closed, so disconcerting was the racket made by the teams as they clamped-clamped along. The reporters who are trying to follow the cases would bless any member of the city government who started a drive for its shall not case his own.

At present they find it necessary to sit like half-dead persons, painfully straining their ears in a grim effort to distinguish the conversation of a witness who is experiencing competition from wagons that jolt and bang and roar in through the windows like chaos let loose.

That a man is as young as he feels is an important truth. During the months to come it will be well for us to remember also that a man is as hot as he feels. The report of a heat prostration in Boston yesterday, when the thermometer had climbed unwontedly for this period of the year, brings new weight to this fact. People go to Cuba, and endure more sweltering weather than is ever known in their home towns. Yet they do not feel dire consequences, because their minds are occupied by more enthralling subjects—such as the charming scenery, the exotic towns, and other things that it were useless to mention. Even here in the great American desert, where the fickle of the sun in a glass has left its most vital compass, a man can pass through the summer months with comparative comfort, if one refuses to let the weather control his mind. A healthy body makes a healthy mind, said Horace. But it is equally true that a healthy mind makes a healthy body.

I know of few organizations in Lowell which have shown such remarkably rapid growth as the League of Catholic Women. Founded only a few years ago with a meagre membership list, it is now rapidly approaching the 2000 mark. I was struck with this fact Sunday afternoon when I saw the league members at the late Association hall for their monthly meeting and long before the afternoon's program had started, there was not a seat to be had. Even the stairs leading to the balcony were congested with waiting places, but a large number of ladies had to stand. When the league began building its members a few years ago, it was a small group of women, but soon the organization grew those quarters and now the league is becoming true of Lowell's hall. The only place to which the members can look now for their meeting place is the new memorial auditorium and indeed many of the women present at Sunday's meeting are the outgrowth of the new building when they were young students along the side of the wall. Eventually, I suppose, the league will have a building of its own.

Many cheap things are useful, but not that kind of politicians.

Plenty of ice for next summer. Thank you, Miss Gage.

LEGION PLANS CARNIVAL

Lowell Post Wants Use of Common During Independence Day Week

South common will be the scene of a gigantic carnival and membership drive for the American Legion, during Independence Day week, if plans offered last night by the local post to representatives of the park department and the chamber of commerce are found acceptable. The proposal made by the legion here embodies the taking over from the park department of the management of festivities on the South common, which have been a feature of Fourth of July week in Lowell during past years. The legion seeks to lease the common, and stage a midway, together with such features as addresses by nationally celebrated figures, aerial plane flights and balloon ascensions. Last evening's meeting included a detailed rehearsal of the tentative plans which have been prepared. Major James J. Powers, commander of the Lowell post, explained the projected celebration, and assured the municipal and business representatives that all city ordinances will be complied with strictly. He offered on behalf of the organization to post deposits which will cover all expenses, and insure those who perform any service in connection with the affair. The city is to receive an amount corresponding to the average sum realized by the park department during the past five years, getting $1500 for the lease of the common.

The sum of $1500 will be posted as a guarantee for the Lowell Electric Light corporation for lighting, while the press advertising campaign will also have a $500 guarantee posted. All expenses incurred for fireworks, balloon ascensions, and airship maneuvers, stated Commander Powers, will be met by the legion, which will utilize such profits as remain for the purpose of furnishing rooms for veterans in the Lowell General and St. John's hospitals.

John Kernan, superintendent of parks, represented the park department at the meeting. It lies within Mr. Kernan's province to let the South common lots, subject to authorization. The chamber of commerce sent its assistant secretary, Edward W. Gallagher. Also present were members of the legion executive committee. To these Commander Powers described the manner in which the legion plans to handle the proposition. After acquiring the lease from the park department, it is intended to sublet the lots and privileges as has been done formerly, securing a percentage on all concessions. The usual midway shows, run in strict conformity with police regulations, would constitute the carnival features, he said. He told of six companies being desirous of coming to Lowell during the week of July 2, and offering to provide high diving, balloonists, and ferris wheels. It is also projected to have a parade down the city, distributing leaflets day and night. There will advertise products handled by local dealers. The city ends of the common, said Commander Powers, will have two high arches, each illuminated by electricity. The membership campaign will be run conjointly with the carnival. Speakers such as Governor Cox and General Edwards will be asked to visit this city and address the people. Superintendent Kernan, in answer to a question, gave it as his opinion that the city has realized approximately $1500 during the past four or five years, for each year's Independence week celebration. When the meeting closed the adjutant of the Lowell post received instructions to request a lease from the park department, after having explained the proposition.

NO RECORD OF WAR DEBT

Treasury Officials Dig Through Musty Records of Revolutionary Days

WASHINGTON, March 22.—Treasury officials dig through musty records of revolutionary days yesterday and announced that they had been unable to find any record of the United States owing France any money on account of loans advanced during the revolutionary war.

Their activity resulted from the publication Sunday by the Paris Echo of a statement by Jean Bernard setting up a counter claim for ninety billion francs alleged to be due France on account of aid given by France in the revolutionary war as against the $3,000,000,000 owed to the United States by France on world war loans.

M. Bernard also claimed that America never had paid $9,000,000 francs of the purchase price of Louisiana, of which he had references to the Louisiana purchase and payments on that debt were few in the treasury files, but that none indicated unpaid balances.

Young Girls Need Care

FROM the age of twelve a girl needs all the care the thoughtful mother can give. Many a woman has suffered years of pain and misery—the victim of thoughtlessness or ignorance of the mother who should have guided her during this time.

If she complains of headaches, pains in the back and lower limbs, or if you notice a slowness of thought, nervousness or irritability on the part of your daughter make life easier for her.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is especially adapted for such conditions. It can be taken in safety by any woman, young or old.

Guttenberg, N. J.—"My daughter was all run down and had fainting spells often, had a bad complexion, and suffered at her monthly periods. Her grandmother had been taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for the Change of Life, and got a bottle of it for her. She began to improve with the first bottle and took five in all and was entirely restored to health. For a time she had not been able to attend school, but she does now. She recommends Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to her friends and I give you permission to publish this letter as a testimonial."—Mrs. CATHERINE MCGLOVE, 304 24th St., Guttenberg, N. J.

Roxbury, Mass.—"My daughter is a schoolgirl and she suffered very much with irregular periods, painful cramps and dizzy headaches. She was sometimes as long as three months between her periods and when they came she was not able to do her school home lessons because she could not even sit up. A copy of one of your little books was left in my letter-box and she began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for her troubles. She is now in good health, is regular and can help me with the housework when not in school."—Mrs. VICTORIA G. SPRENGER, 74 Bragdon St., Roxbury, Mass.

WILL EXTEND POSTER CAMPAIGN TO LOWELL

The Massachusetts Near East relief committee announces through its state director, Dr. William A. Bartlett, that it will extend its "Say It With Flour" campaign, which was inaugurated in Greater Boston two weeks ago, to cities within a 25 mile radius of the Hub.

At a conference of all of the state workers, held this week, it was announced that until after Easter all efforts would be concentrated upon the flour campaign, which is to be put over without a spoken word, but through the appeal of thousands of posters, each carrying its own selling points in printed form, and provided with coin pockets that receive silver donations.

Massachusetts is to send 5243 barrels of flour to the relief of the hungry children of the Near East countries, most of whom are aided by the Hoover fund for Central Europe, and contributions are to be made as a Lenten offering.

In Boston the bread posters are in every hotel and bank and each one earned at least a barrel of flour the first week it was in position. The flour campaign is in progress. The flour campaign is in progress. The flour campaign is in progress.

A Near East worker has been assigned to each city, to arrange for placing the posters, appointing a committee member in each bank, and seeing that the collections are made regularly and forwarded to the Boston headquarters. Governor Channing H. Cox, heads the special flour committee that has been appointed with nine prominent citizens serving with him.

New York's Board of Inebriates Briefly Loses Job

NEW YORK, March 22.—Go down to the board of inebriates and see what the seven members are doing these days, was the assignment.

Inquiry at city hall failed to develop anybody who knew of such a board.

Sixteen opinions on where it might be proved incorrect. The 17th try was successful.

"Yes, this is the board of inebriates," said W. J. Donovan, who sat behind the desk in the office near the attic.

"Where are all the inebriates?"

"There aren't any. Prohibition killed them. It killed the board, too."

"I'm just winding up the business. Then I'm quitting."

"It takes lots of booze to make an inebriate. And liquor these days is too expensive to be plentiful."

The board formerly took inebriates to a farm where they were put through a three-year cure.

JAPANESE SITUATION FORCED TO LAY OFF

Bishop Hira-Iwa Says Hard-
Shidehara Agreement

NEW YORK, March 22.—Bishop Yoshiyasu Hira-Iwa, of the Japanese Methodist church, now in this city, declared today that while he was in Washington Count Shidehara, Japanese ambassador, had expressed to him belief that the Harding administration would adopt the Morris-Shidehara agreement in final settlement of the Japanese situation in California.

"The Japanese public is anxiously awaiting news to this effect," said the bishop. "The Morris-Shidehara agreement will be satisfactory to the Japanese people, but it leaves unsolved the problem of racial expansion, which is pressing."

"The Japanese still look toward the western hemisphere as the only logical ground for immigration. But contrary to belief in this country, they are willing to amalgamate with the people among whom they settle."

"Japan does not want Hawaii or the Philippines. The present friction has been greatly augmented, however, by the suddenly increased hostilities and the extensive fortifications being erected there."

"Frankly, the Japanese people are extremely nervous over the possibilities of aggression from a nation of such power and wealth as the United States. They do not contemplate holding any trouble of their own accord."

"There is a strong movement in Japan for reduction of armaments because the present military and naval expenses consume more than one-third the yearly budget and the people are burdened with heavy taxes. Any action by the United States toward such an agreement, would find a hearty response in Japan, but it must originate with your country because of the relative size of the two nations."

FROM WORK, HE SAYS

Fall River Man in Bad Shape Before He Got Tanlac—Is On Job Every Day Now Feeling Fine

"Before I got Tanlac everything I ate hurt me so bad it seemed that I just could not endure it. Now I take three good meals a day and sometimes a snack between meals to satisfy me," said Owen Donovan, 40 Danforth street, Fall River, well known carpenter, recently.

"Four years ago, I had a severe case of pneumonia which left me in an awful condition. After I finally got up, instead of getting stronger, it seemed that I got weaker, and constantly had to quit work entirely. Often I got so dizzy I would nearly fall over on my work bench. I could scarcely eat anything, and after eating I think I had the worst feeling a person can have on account of indigestion. At times, I actually thought my time had come."

"But the first bottle of Tanlac I took got me feeling better, and in a little while the boys down where I work began to say: 'Owen, what in the world is making you look so much better? Well, when I told them I was taking Tanlac they seemed to understand all the rest. My appetite is simply enormous now, and my health has been built up in every way until I feel just as well as I did before my troubles began, and am on the job every day. I'm mighty thankful to Tanlac, and I hope other sufferers will try it, for I feel sure it will help anyone suffering as I did.'"

NEURASTHENIA— NERVE STARVATION

A Disease of the Down Hearted—Practical advice on what to do.

Many a man is broken down and discouraged without having any actual disease in his organs and tissues. He has lost his grip, feels weak and nervous and everything looks dark. He is suffering from the great American disease—Neurasthenia or nerve starvation, due to over-work, worry, continual hurry and nervous strain. The longer this continues the more certainly will it end in nervous disease of his organs, his nerves or his mind.
Such a man should live on the simple foods, eat plenty of cooked fruit and green vegetables, sleep nine hours, so that he can, at an hour in the afternoon and feel his starving nerves and weak, thin blood with a good nerve and vital food, like Nuxated Iron. Nuxated Iron contains a product brought to the attention of the French Academy of Medicine by the celebrated Dr. Robin, which represents the principal chemical constituent of active, living nerve force; it also contains genuine organic iron like the iron in your blood and like the iron in spinach, lentils and apples.

Nuxated Iron may therefore be said to be a real nerve and blood food and it supplies the principal ingredients demanded by your nerves and blood, so gives you strength, energy, force and endurance. It often increases the bodily and mental vigor of weak, worn-out, down hearted and nervous people in two weeks' time. Your money will be refunded by the manufacturers if it does not produce perfectly satisfactory results. For sale by all druggists.—Adv.

stroyed by fire late yesterday, a short time after the 1000 pupils had been dismissed.

Only the teachers and a few children were in the building when the alarm was given and all escaped safely. Five residences on an adjoining street were damaged.

Boys are believed by the police to have been responsible for the fire and an investigation that may lead to arrests was being conducted last night.
The police were informed by Charles Dreyfus, who gave the alarm, that he noticed smoke coming from the basement and, upon going to investigate,
found two boys standing before a bundle of burning rags and papers.

When he started to trample out the blaze, Dreyfus, in his statement to the police, said the boys pleaded with him to let it burn so they would not have to go back to school.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—Mrs.

Presents Loan Orders

Continued

Mr. Murphy explained that 300 or 400 feet of gas pipe would have to be laid if a gaslight were installed.
The order was adopted.

An order directing the commissioner of streets and highways to prepare for the usual watering and oiling of streets and to report thereon to the municipal council, was adopted.

The council also adopted an order to re-establish the grade of a portion of Pawtucket street.

A protest against the proposed packing plant in Payton street was received from Charles L. Wood and 21 other residents of Fort Hill avenue and Pleasant street. It was ordered placed on file.

The council voted to adopt an order fixing the time of payment of bonds to be negotiated under authority of the high school loan of 1912. This loan originally totaled $750,000, of which $250,000 has been borrowed. At the time the first loan was made the council passed an order regulating the issue of bonds for the entire amount,

but attorneys of the First National bank have requested that a separate order be passed for the $400,000 which is still unborrowed. The explanation was made to the council by City Treasurer Fred H. Bourke.

Paving and Macadam Loans
An order was introduced by Commissioner Murphy to borrow $50,000
for paving and another to borrow $50, 000 for macadam work. The council directed the city clerk to advertise
both orders before action is taken.

A requisition upon the purchasing agent for 140,000 gallons, more or less,
of 45 and 65 per cent asphaltic road oil to be delivered and applied subject to the direction of the commissioner of streets and highways was approved.

Another requisition, calling for the purchase of sufficient sewer castings, manhole frames, covers, etc., for the needs of the sewer department for 1921, was also approved.

Approval was likewise given regulations submitted by Commissioner Murphy for 10,000 feet of Portland sewer pipe and 4000 barrels of Portland cement.

ASTHMA WOULDN'T LET HIM LIE DOWN

for Over 9 Months.

"A year ago I had asthma so bad
my friends thought I would never get over it. I had doctored for a long time without results. I had not been in bed for 3 weeks, could not even sit up straight in a chair. Then I heard of Milks Emulsion and started using
it. It was only two days later that I could go to bed and sleep soundly. After taking eight bottles (81 worth) I found myself completely cured. It is over 9 months now since I quit taking Milks Emulsion, and I haven't had a symptom of asthma since."—Geo. W.

TELLS OF ADVANTAGES OF ADVERTISING

BOSTON, March 22.—William T. Mullally of the New York Association of Advertising Agencies was the guest and principal speaker at the dinner and meeting of the Pillarum Publicity Association in the South station restaurant last night. After the dinner the singing and the "stunts" Vice President, Henry Kuhns, introduced Mr. Mullally as one of the most forceful, practical and idealistic advertising men in the country.

After pointing out what advertising accomplished for the world in the 19th century and commenting on the work of the American Association of Advertising Agencies, Mr. Mullally showed what the future—the next 10 years—holds in store for business and advertising.

Big Strides in Next 10 Years
He said: "The next 10 years will be marked by a succession of forward steps, and by these steps we shall set up the milestones of achievement. Some of these milestones are too far in the distance to be discernible from where we now stand. One of the first advances I believe is an hour at hand that I want you to consider it seriously, and that is the realization that advertising is a tangible asset, that accepted bills for good publicity are a security which any careful institution should be willing to accept as collateral."

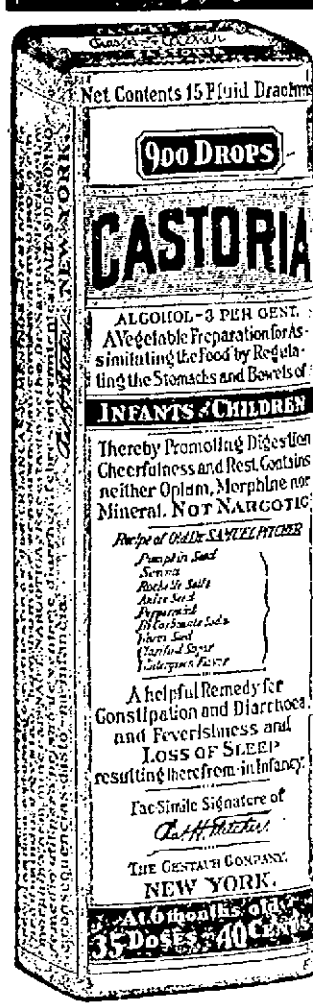

"The fact that there are financial institutions in the country today that spend $500,000 a year in publicity of various sorts and that these institutions are the leaders in the financial world, is a positive proof that the bankers believe in the efficacy of advertising. What is good will or trade name but advertising? There is one rubber company that computes its goods will be valued at $57,000,000; our tobacco company has valued its good will at $54,000,000; a well known motor corporation estimates its good will at $7,300,000 out of total assets $55,500,000."

"Mr. Francis H. Sisson, vice president of the Guaranty Trust Co. in an article in Advertising and Selling of Jan. 15, cites the above interesting facts and goes on to say: 'I might go down through the whole range of American business interests and cite many instances of the same general character. The progressive and intelligent banker today, as he sizes up the balance sheet of any institution, takes into consideration a very large degree the earning power, the character of the men included in the organization, the ownership of the business and the prestige and good will that have been created for it by an intelligent promotion effort.'

Advertising Means Good Faith
"Now the institution which advertises broadly the character and quality of its goods establishes for itself a standard of production. It enters into a compact of faith with the buying public which it cannot break, and one of the greatest services that advertising has rendered the world and rendered this country in particular has been the establishing of standards and ideals of service and production to which the producing corporations have had to maintain in their own manufacturing processes or in the service they rendered the public, and that has become one of the most important factors in the creation of good will values."

"The banker doesn't always see this picture as I have stated it, but one of the important functions that the advertising men of the world have to serve today is to interpret these situations to their own clients on one side and to the public on the other; until there is established that better understanding upon which desirable and scientifically exact business arrangements and relationships can be built."

Points to New Haven Case
"Let us take just one example. It was admitted that the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad paid as high as $11,000,000 to an underwriting house that was instrumental in raising $20,000,000. Had this $11,000,000 or even a portion of it been spent in advertising, do you believe for one minute that the securities of this road would have suffered in the way in which they have in the last few years? How futile the present method of advertising our railroads is. Such copy should be brought with popular interest; it should tell what territory the road serves, and its great usefulness to the public. Railroad advertising should advise any holder of stock that wishes to know about the road to inquire of the railroad's information office, and not go to a brokerage office whose whole livelihood consists in inducing people to sell the securities which they have and purchase others. "There is no limit to the possibilities of right advertising. To cite an instance in the great war, the leaders dropped by our soldiers in the German lines carried the gospel of right to the German soldiers and caused them by the thousands to surrender willingly. "In this hour of world anxiety, if the great powers would state their policies and standards openly in the press, over their own signatures, we would do away with secret treaties and entangling alliances and be assured of an open, broad policy free from the manipulations of unscrupulous and greedy minded politicians. "The future of the world depends upon advertising. Advertising is the salvation of civilization; it alone cannot outlive advertising a century."

TWO AIRMEN KILLED

Student Aviator Becomes

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla., March 22.—Attempting a landing from too low an altitude, Lee Rothert of this city and J. B. Farrington of Newport Ky., were killed here yesterday when their machine struck the earth within 20 feet of the water and safety. Rothert, who was driving the plane, became confused and lost control of the machine as it neared the earth, according to those who witnessed the accident. Farrington, who was acting as Rothert's instructor, realizing the danger, jumped and was crushed to death.

NEW FRENCH CHURCH
St. Jeanne d'Arc church will be the name of the new French Catholic church that is being erected in Pawtucketville. This announcement was made this morning by Very Rev. E. J. Turcotte, O.M.I., pastor of St. Joseph's and vice provincial of the Oblate order in this district. It was expected that the new church would be ready for service Easter Sunday, but owing to a delay in the shipping of materials for the erection of the new building, it will be two or three weeks before the first mass is celebrated. During the past few days a handsome way of the cross, which was donated by the women of the district through the activities of Mrs. Bordeaux and Mrs. Lantagne, has been installed in the building. A statue of Joan of Arc, the gift of the Sawyer family, has also been put in place on a pedestal in the sanctuary.

Lowell Charter Bill

The Lowell charter bill continues to repose in the custody of the senate committee on bills in third reading, the members of which are exercising the utmost care to make certain that it shall pass the senate only in perfect form. In view of rumors that have been circulated that the charter is full of inconsistencies, they are going over it with fine-tooth combs and if any such inconsistencies are discovered they will be speedily corrected.

Indications are that they will complete their study this week, and the bill will then pass the senate without delay.

Tyngsboro Bridge

The house today passed through a final reading the bill permitting the county commissioners of Middlesex to borrow $30,000 for strengthening the Tyngsboro bridge.

Daylight Saving Bill

Yesterday's action of the house on the daylight saving bill again leaves the matter very much up in the air, because no one can say without authority whether clocks in this state will be advanced next Sunday or on the 24th of April. Last week the opponents of daylight saving agreed that strategy required them to have the advanced time begin next Sunday; they figured that the longer the period of daylight saving, the greater would be dissatisfaction with it and the better their chance of bringing about its repeal next year. Yesterday, however, many of them joined hands with advocates of the plan and rushed through all its readings, the bill shortening the daylight saving period by one month at each end. This would seem to indicate an intention on their part to have the bill go into operation this week, and if they are successful in the new plan there will be no change in time before four weeks from next Sunday. Indications at present, however, are that there will be considerable difficulty in getting the bill through its remaining stages; it must still go before each branch for adoption of the so-called "emergency preamble," without which its operation would be deferred for 30 days, and for the adoption of which a two-thirds vote in each branch is necessary. Then it must be enacted in each branch. By diligent effort it can be placed before the governor Friday night, and there will still remain the doubt as to whether he will sign it at once, or will delay until next week, in order that the railroads may make use of the new train schedules which they have already prepared.

New Pickering Bill

The senate yesterday made a material change in the law relative to pickering, giving a final reading to a bill providing that no pickering less than 12 inches long may be taken. At present the minimum length permitted is ten inches.

Senator Austin of Somerville, chairman of the committee on conserving said the bill is needed for propagation of the pickeral species, which is slowly dying out in this state. These fish, he said, have their first spawning season when between ten and twelve inches in length; in other words, a pickeral ten inches long has never produced any spawn, and consequently the catching of such a pickeral represents a net loss. By protecting the fish until they are 12 inches long, opportunity is given for at least one spawning season in the case of each individual fish.

Clerks of Court

The senate killed, as recommended by the committee on public service, a bill providing that clerks of courts shall hold office during good behavior. At present they are appointed by the governor for terms of five years each. In the house, resolutions requesting congress to permit the sale of intoxicating liquors on American vessels on the high seas was consigned to the waste basket without debate.

A HOME-MADE GRAY HAIR REMEDY

You Can Make a Better Gray Hair Remedy Than You Can Buy

Gray, streaked or faded hair is not only unbecoming, but unnecessary. Anyone can prepare a simple mixture at home that will darken gray hair, and make it soft and glossy. To do this, mix a half-pint of water add 1 ounce of bay rum, a small box of Harny compound and ¼ ounce of glycerine. These ingredients can be bought at any drug store at very little cost. The druggist will put it up for you. Apply to the hair twice a week until the desired shade is obtained. This will make a gray-haired person look twenty years younger. It is easy to use, does not color the scalp, is not sticky or greasy and does not rub off. —Adv.

*Do you pay your body
to keep you vigorous?*

Every day's activities cause you to expend a large amount of vital energy. If you replace the energy expended, you keep strong and vigorous. But, if you fail to replace the lost energy, the vital power of the body becomes exhausted—the blood gets impoverished—the nerves get shaky—you get irritable, depressed and feel all run-down. To keep strong and vigorous, the system must be supplied with the materials which enable the body to create a continuous supply of vital energy. In other words, the body must be paid to keep you vigorous.

If you tire quickly—If your nerves are shaky—
If your blood is poor—If you are run-down or debilitated—your body is asking for payment.

That means your system is calling for those materials which it needs to enable it to create vital energy and nerve force. And so surely as you restore to the body

How to restore your vital energy—enrich your blood—strengthen your nerves and promote vigor and vitality

In almost every case of weakness, anemia, nervousness and run-down vitality, there is real shortage in the body of several mineral elements which are positively essential to the creation of vital power. These elements are particularly: Iron, Calcium, Potassium, Sodium, Phosphorus. All these elements are contained in Wincarnis, because Wincarnis is prepared especially for weak, anemic, nervous and run-down people. So that by taking Wincarnis when you are weak, anemic, nervous or run-down, you supply to the body the very elements it needs and, in this way, you pay the body for the work it does, by supplying the materials necessary to enable the body to create vital energy—to make the blood rich and red—to strengthen the nerves—and to promote renewed vigor, vitality and endurance.

Choose the right way to health

Remember this important fact—If you are weak, anemic, nervous or run-down, because of a shortage in the body of Iron, Calcium, Potassium, Sodium and Phosphorus, that no single one alone of these will do. The body must be supplied with all of them. And because Wincarnis contains all of them in most appropriate proportions and acceptable form, Wincarnis should be your choice if you desire new strength, new vigor, new vitality. Over 10,000 physicians have recommended Wincarnis. Your druggist has your bottle of Wincarnis ready for you. Try just one bottle.

Provincial by O. M. I. Superior General

Announcement was received from Rome late yesterday afternoon to the effect that a vice province had been formed in the present first American province of the Oblate order and that Rev. Eugene J. Turcotte, O.M.I., pastor of St. Joseph's parish, this city, had been appointed vice provincial by Most Rev. Augustin Dombrowski, O.M.I., superior general of the Oblate order, with headquarters in Rome.

The new vice province will include St. Joseph's, St. Jean Baptiste's and Notre Dame de Lourdes churches of this city, St. Peter's of Plattsburg, N. Y., and missions in Aurora, Kansas, Fond-du-Lac, Wis., and Egg Harbor, N. J.

The reason for the formation of the vice province, it is said, is to mitigate the increasing labor and responsibility borne by the provincial, as well as to stimulate and encourage in recruiting French speaking priests for the wide scope of missionary work undertaken by the Oblate order in America.

The following priests have been appointed on the vice provincial council: Rev. Augustin Dombrowski, O.M.I., and Rev. Armand Haron, O.M.I., of St. Joseph's; Rev. Leon Lamotte, O.M.I., of Notre Dame de Lourdes; and Rev. Julien Racette, O.M.I., of Plattsburg.

Very Rev. Fr. Turcotte, O.M.I., was born in Canada, but came to this city when a boy. He attended St. Joseph's college of this city and Holy Angels' college in Buffalo, N. Y., and completed his theological studies in the Ottawa university. He came to Lowell in 1917 as an assistant to the pastor and a few months later he was promoted to the position of pastor. For the time being he will make his headquarters in St. Joseph's rectory.

MISSING MAN FOUND
WANDERING IN WOODS

NEW BEDFORD, March 22.—Anthony Palladino, aged 33, of 153 Grove street, Chelsea, missing from his home since March 11, was found wandering in the woods of Dartmouth yesterday. His clothes were tattered and he was in a famished condition. Palladino said he had been living in the woods for several days and had picked up for food whatever he could find.

Constables came upon Palladino while hunting for "Jack-the-Peeper," who had been reported as operating in Dartmouth. Palladino was taken to Chelsea late yesterday in care of his father.

ACCEPT WAGE CUT AND STRIKE IS AVERTED

BOSTON, March 22.—The threatened strike of the employees of the Boston, Revere Beach & Lynn railroad has been averted. A settlement was reached at a conference before the state board of conciliation and arbitration at the state house yesterday afternoon. By the terms of the settlement the employees agree to accept a reduction in wages of three-fifths of the proposed cut of 85 cents a day, or approximately 52 cents per day. The working conditions will remain the same. This means that the basic day will remain at 100 miles. The new wage scale will go into effect on Thursday, March 24.

In the announcement of reduction in wages, posted by the officials of the road, it was stated that a reduction of 85 cents per day would be inaugurated, and that rates of pay would be computed on a basis of 100 miles a day instead of the present scale of 100 miles.

Grand lodge officers of the "Big Five" who came on to Boston to handle the situation contended that the increasing of the mileage per day would wipe out all overtime pay, and in addition to the reduction of 85 cents would mean practically a cut of $1.30 per day.

Under the new wage scale which goes into effect this week, engineers will be paid $6.11 in place of $5.32, the old rate, and $6.00 the first proposed cut. Firemen will receive $4.78 in place of $5.30 the old rate, and $4.43 the proposed cut. Conductors will receive $3.16 in place of $3.55 the old rate, and $3.11 the proposed cut. Baggage men will receive $4.83 in place of $5.35, or $4.48 the proposed cut. Trainmen will receive $4.62 in place of $5.14, or $4.27 the proposed cut.

SMITH AND WOMAN COMPANION HELD

BOSTON, March 22.—Randolph Wellford Smith, formerly vice president and publicity agent of the Loyal Coalition, who lives at the Parker house, and a woman who gave her name as Elizabeth Shepard Smith, who also claims the Parker house as her residence and with whom he was arrested on a serious statutory charge in Worcester on Sunday night, were arraigned in the central municipal court yesterday with the Smith woman before Judge Wentworth. They pleaded not guilty and were held in $500 each for a hearing on April 4.

During the court proceedings there was considerable excitement in Pemberton square and at the court house, where a large crowd of people had gathered to catch a glimpse of the defendants. The warrant for their arrest was procured on Saturday by Special Officer Manning of station 2. The couple were arrested in Worcester Sunday afternoon following a communication to the Worcester police by the Boston authorities.

In court yesterday Smith's alleged wife, he said, who is understood to live in New York and who, he alleges, has not seen Smith since 1907. It is alleged that she claims to have seven children and that Smith is the father of them.

Demand Lloyd, president of the Loyal Coalition, issued the following statement yesterday in regard to Randolph Wellford Smith, described as an ex-member of the staff of the Loyal Coalition:

"Randolph Wellford Smith, who was arrested in Worcester Sunday, and arraigned in Boston on a statutory charge, resigned on Oct. 10, 1920, by request of members of the executive committee of the Loyal Coalition and, furthermore, has taken no active part in its affairs since the close of the national democratic convention in San Francisco early last July."

VIRTUAL RECOGNITION OF SOVIET GOVERNMENT

LONDON, March 22.—(By the Associated Press.)—The Anglo-Russian agreement, carried through by Premier Lloyd George and Sir Robert Stevenson, president of the board of trade, in the face of determined opposition both from within and without the cabinet is generally regarded as more important from its political than its economic implications. Although it does not recognize the soviet government in the regular diplomatic sense of the word, it is nevertheless tantamount to recognition of the de facto government and is most likely, according to the view held in well informed circles, to be followed in the not distant future by a regular political treaty.

Moreover, while it does not establish friendly relations, it at least establishes non-hostile relations.

The strongest advocates of the agreement, while not ignoring its economic importance and desirability as promoting trade, have usually laid stress on the belief that more could be accomplished in freeing the soviet regime from its most objectionable features by opening Russia and the Russian people to intercourse with the world than could be achieved by a policy of isolation and antagonism.

The recent rising at Kronstadt is regarded here as symptomatic of the discontent of large classes of the population of Russia, especially the peasants with the dictatorial methods of the soviet administration. This discontent only became apparent because of the military struggle against forces within and without, is experiencing now an era of comparative peace and allowing the ferment of natural political forces to the cabinet is generally regarded as re-assert itself. It is argued that this ferment will continue with continued peace and probably bring about the evolution of a more democratic form of government.

From this viewpoint the opening of Russia to foreign influences, indicated in a number of treaties and agreements already concluded or about to be negotiated, is a matter of first class importance.

rest was procured on Saturday by Special Officer Manning of station 2. The couple were arrested in Worcester Sunday afternoon following a communication to the Worcester police by the Boston authorities.

PHILADELPHIA, March 22.—Peter D. Treadway, who was convicted of murder in the second degree on Saturday for killing Henry T. Pierce, manufacturer's sales agent, here last November, was sentenced yesterday to serve from 19 years, six months, to 20 years.

Lud Judge Audenried imposed the maximum penalty of 20 years. Treadway would have been entitled to a commutation of six years for good behavior. Under the law a prisoner must serve a minimum sentence before he is granted time off.

The government has 30 reclamation projects on hand covering an aggregate of 3,200,000 acres.

FORDNEY TARIFF BILL

Precisely as Vetoed by Wilson—See Early Passage

WASHINGTON, March 22.—The house ways and means committee voted yesterday to take up the Fordney emergency tariff bill precisely as vetoed by Mr. Wilson and put it through the special session of congress with a six-months limitation.

This plan meets the approval of President Harding and also was concurred in by Senators Penrose, Smoot and McCumber, republican members of the senate finance committee. Work on a permanent tariff bill will be started by the house committee ahead of revenue revision.

Senator Penrose expressed belief that the emergency measure would be in the hands of Mr. Harding within 10 days.

WILLING TO SHARE HER GOOD FORTUNE

Mrs. Stephen Murphy, of No. 74 Dartmouth street, Manchester, N. H., might still be suffering as many other men and women are suffering today, had she not discovered the right tonic in time. She is anxious therefore that others should share her good fortune.

She says:

"Overwork and irregular eating hours undermined my strength and health about three years ago. My stomach was so weak that nearly everything I ate caused severe pain, and there was an almost constant pain in my side in the region of the heart. I was very weak and could hardly do my work. I was melancholy and worried constantly. At night I rolled and tossed so that what sleep I got did me little good."

"A woman who had been benefited by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills one day advised me to try the remedy and I started the treatment. In two weeks' time my stomach improved and after I had taken the pills for nine weeks I was completely restored to health. I sleep soundly now and am rested in the morning. I eat anything I want without discomfort and the pains in my left side have disappeared. My household is no longer a drudgery for I do not get tired easily. I have told many of my friends about what Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have done for me."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists or direct from the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., on receipt of price, 60 cents per box. Write for the free book, "Building Up the Blood."—Adv.

SUIT STYLES FOR THE YOUNG MAN

May Be Found Where the Stock Is Brand New.

The young man who is out looking for up-to-date in an Easter and spring suit will exercise good judgment by making his selection at the store that has a brand new stock on hand to serve his wants. There is grave danger of serious error if he visits one of those stores that is carrying over last season's goods and unloading them on an unsuspecting public on the pretense of being this season's product.

The Merrimack Clothing Company couldn't do this, even if it wanted to. The $20,000 "Under Coat Sale" of the recent past practically cleaned this store of its stock and they were obliged to replenish earlier than usual this spring. The selections are away ahead of anything shown elsewhere, and are the first stock of the advanced styles and makes of the country's biggest manufacturers. You'll say so when you "look them over." One glance will convince you that they are new and distinctive in style, color, combinations and fit.

ceased, B. C. J. W. and G. D. Morrison and a nephew, L. M. Ryan. The funeral arrangements were in charge of Joseph W. Wilson, under the direction of Undertaker George W. Healey.

BOYLE—The funeral of Mrs. Della Boyle, a well known resident of this city took place this morning from her home, 32 Whipple street and was very largely attended. Solemn high mass of requiem was celebrated at St. Peter's church at 9 o'clock by Rev. Francis L. Shea, assisted by Rev. D. J. Heffernan as deacon and Rev. Peter J. Linehan as reader. Sacred withal, the requiem was read by Rev. John P. Flynn, O.M.I., Rev. P. T. Wood, O.M.I. and Rev. E. N. McGann, O.M.I. The choir rendered the Gregorian chant, the solo being sustained by Miss Mary Ryne, James E. Donnelly and Miss Gertrude Quigley, who also presided at the organ. The bearers were Robert Dwyer, John O'Brien, James Grogan, James Wallace, William O'Callaghan and James Minahan. The ushers at the house and church were: Dr. P. J. Kennedy, Dr. E. J. Welch, Dr. F. J. Finnegan, Dr. J. Carroll and William C. Purcell. There was a wreath of floral and spiritual offerings. Burial took place in the family lot in St. Patrick's cemetery, where the committal prayers were read by Rev. Fr. Shea, assisted by Rev. Fr. Flynn, Rev. Fr. Leonard Fletcher, O.M.I. and Rev. John P. Flynn, O.M.I. Funeral arrangements were in charge of Undertaker John F. Rogers.

GENDREAU—A military funeral took place this morning when the remains of John Joseph Gendreau, U.S.N., son of Mr. and Mrs. Clement Gendreau of Spruce street, Dracut, were interred in St. Joseph's cemetery. The funeral cortege, headed by a firing squad of the American legion and a delegation of naval officers and seamen, left the funeral parlors of Undertakers Amedee Archambault & Sons in Merrimack street at 8:30 o'clock and wended its way to St. Joseph's church where at 9 o'clock a high mass of requiem was celebrated by Rev. Donat Boisvert. The choir under the direction of Oliver J. David rendered the Gregorian chant. At the offertory Mrs. Henri A. Archambault rendered a "Pie Jesu" and as the body was being borne from the church the choir sang "De Profundis." Miss Ida Mongrain presiding at the organ.
